Congressmen Praise Social Security Plan

President's Proposals Receive Enthusiastic Backing on All Sides

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress appeared set today to give delayed but enthusiastic approval to President Eisenhower's plea for bigger benefits and more taxes under a social security system covering almost the entire population.

Seldom, in fact, has a White House message on such a vast and controversial subject produced so littl vocal dissent as the program sent to the Capitol yesterday on Old Age and Survivors' Insurance.

No Question About It

House Speaker Martin (R-Mass) gave this appraisal today: "There isn't any question but that this Congress will enact legislation substantially carrying out the President's program."

A key Democratic leader, asking not to be quoted by name, said, "You can bet your bottom dollar that few Democrats will oppose it."

Chairman Reed (R-NY) praised the program and said his House Ways and Means Committee will go to work on it, probably in early March.

Reed, who has fought the President on other points and who has opposed plans of past Democratic administrations to liberalize social security, introduced two bills to carry out Eisenhower's proposals.

One bill embraces the main proposal for extending coverage, raising benefits and inceasing from $3,600 to $4,200 the individual income limit on which the 2 per cent social security tax would apply.

More Controversial Section

The other would put into effect what is expected to be the more controversial part of the presidential program—revision of federal contributions to states for direct relief to persons not covered, including some needy aged, blind, disabled persons and dependent children.

Reportedly Reed divided the legislation so that, if opposition makes it necessary, social security expansion can be pushed without becoming involved in any fight over the welfare program.

Monthly benefit increases would go to those already retired or receiving suvivors' payments and in larger measure to those becoming eligible in the future. The increases would range from $5 to, ultimately, $23.50 or more for families.

Just Before Elections

Coverage also would be extended to almost the entire working force 10½ million additional persons, including doctors, lawyers and farmers.

The like effective date for increased benefits to some six million persons already eligible would

Series of Court Delays Tie Up Reuther Case

DETROIT (AP)—The state's Walter Reuther m. der plot case was at a virtual dead stop today, tied up tight in a series of court delays.

Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien wasn't saying what his next move would be. It was reported, however, that he and associates were looking for a way to facilitate extradition from Canada of Donald Ritchie, the reluctant ace witness.

Considering all the possible international legal ramifications, it might be weeks before Ritchie could be brought back over the Detroit neighboring river from Windsor, Ont. His hearing is set for Jan. 21 in Windsor.

Ritchie is the man who supposedly made $10,000 on the attempt to kill Reuther—$5,000 which he said was given him by one of the four men he named as conspirators and another $5,000 as a reward from Reuther's CIO auto union for his story to police of the alleged plot. The union itself announced it made the $5,000 reward payment.

Courts here and in Windsor yesterday deferred the cases of two co-defendants, Carl Renda, 35, and Clarence Jacobs, 48.

SNOW IN CALIFORNIA. Freezing midwesterners can take comfort during the current cold wave that it's cold and snowy in California, too. Here's Tommy Chigwidden, 2, making snowballs on the road leading to Frazier Park, Calif., on the Los Angeles County line just off the Ridge Route to the San Joaquin valley. Jury Repeats Earlier Action, Indicts Twelve

Second Examination Made Necessary After Discovery of Error

The January term grand jury, concluding a three-day session this morning, returned similar indictments against 12 individuals as did a December panel whose actions later were nullified because of a legal technicality.

Indictments returned included a first-degree murder charge against Bert Elswick, 37-year-old Marionite who has admitted strangling his 31-year-old wife, Violet, on Dec. 5 at the Green Camp dump.

Earlier Action Nullified

Action of the December grand jury was nullifed by Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith when it was brought to his attention that one juror had served on another panel during the previous year, contrary to state law.

This grand jury, like the previous one, failed to return indictments against Arbie Sublet Jr., for auto theft, and John A. Knotts, for manslaughter.

In addition to Elswick, indictments were returned against Virgil Gilmore, for breaking and entering; Alton Brooks Bowman, assault wth intent to wound; Robert I. Massie, second degree manslaughter; Lloyd Cornwell, two counts each of larceny and embezzlement; Ray Coykendall Jr., grand larceny; Harold Walker, two counts of grand larceny; Howard E. Edington, breaking and entering, and attempting to force entrance to a safe; Iden S. Webster, two counts of fraud; Lloyd Simpson, breaking and entering; Sarah Dawson, two counts of receiving stolen goods; and Paul Sheller, forgery.

Two New Cases

Grand jurors also considered two cases which had developed since the previous grand jury met. An indictment consisting of two counts of fraud was returned against Robert E. Richards, while no indictment was returned against Clyde Artripe on non-support charges.

Before reporting their findings to Judge Smith, grand jurors made their customary inspection of the Marion County jail. They reported they found that the jail "is clean and in a sanitary condition, and from our inspection and investigation find that proper discipline is and has been maintained, and that the prisoners are now, and have been, properly treated and cared for."

Facilities Needed

However, jurors reported that "sanitary facilities are inadequate and proper equipment in the way of toilets, fumigation, and showers should be installed" and that the jail "is not properly heated and that at least one blanket should be provided for all prisoners." They also learned that "there are no adequate facilities for providing drinking water, which should be provided, and that the interior of the jail is in need of paint and redecoration."

They further recommended that separate quarters be provided for the confinement of mental patients.

Foreman of the grand jury was Richard H. Lawson of Marion, while George R. Rider of Marion served as clerk. Other members of the jury were Jack L. Cooper, Mary A. Griffin, Harold H. Rainier, John H. Hix, Mary M. Hiss, Adaline R. Meddles, Juanita T. Herrigal, H. R. Gilbert, and Robert L. Clark, all of Marion; Donald Heiby of near Marion; Charles Laucher of near Prospect; Betty J. Cook of near Caledonia; and Jean Clinger of near LaRue.

Nash-Hudson Merger Results In New Firm

Consolidation Okayed; Company Will Operate As American Motors

DETROIT (AP) — Hudson Motors and Nash-Kelvinator are consolidating—marking another in a series of big intercompany deals in the auto industry in recent months.

Subject only to anticipated stockholder approval, the Hudson Motor Car Co. and Nash-Kelvinator Corp. will become the American Motors Corp.

An estimated 355 million dollars in total assets and more than 100 million in working capital are involved.

Boards of directors of the two companies agreed on terms of the consolidation yesterday.

N-K's Nash and Kelvinator divisions and Hudson agreed to beco e separate divisions of the new corporation. Kelvinator is the electrical appliance-producing division of N-K Corp.

The plan also called for converting three shares of Hudson stock for two of American Motors. Each share of Nash-Kelvinator stock will become one share in the new corporation.

Three Mishaps Reported Here

Icy Streets Blamed For All City Accidents

Three minor traffic accidents—all blamed on skids caused by icy streets—were reported today by city police. No accidents were reported on county highways by the state highway patrol or Marion County sheriff's office.

In city mishaps, a car driven by Mrs. Louise Phillians of 634 Davids St., struck a car parked in front of his residence and owned by Donald Metcalf of 685 Davids St at 4:10 p.m. yesterday.

A Greyhound Lines bus driven by Emmett Morris, 45, of Columbus and a truck driven by Donald E. Parker, 28, also of Columbus collided at N. Main and E. George Sts at 10:29 a.m. yesterday.

A car driven by William E. Saunders, 46, of 529 Fies Ave., and a truck driven by Darold J. Maury, 18, of New Bloomington collided at W. Center and Cayuga Sts. at 10:03 a.m. yesterday.

AT&T's Net Income For '53 at Record High

NEW YORK (AP)—The giant American Telephone & Telegraph Co., whose Bell System companies operate four-fifths of the nation's telephones, had a record net income of $421,060,000 in 1953.

The quarterly report to stockholders released today showed this was equivalent to $10.31 a share and compared with net income of $358,493,204 or $10.09 a share on a lesser number of shares for 1952

Jury Acquits Trainer

OMAHA (AP)—Towering Joe Kuykendall, whose friends call him the "best horse-shoer" in his part of the country was free today after a 6½ week trial for first degree murder.

The 34-year-old Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz., horse trainer was acquitted of murder last night in connection with the death of his heiress bride of three months, Ardath (Noni) Kuykendall, 30.

Squeeze Put On Ike Over Soviet Trade

Pressures Mounting For Administration To Relax Restrictions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pressures are mounting on the Eisenhower administration to lower some of the cold war barriers so as to permit more trade between the United States and Russia and its satellites.

Many top officials responsible for international economic policy feel some decisions will have to be made fairly soon. Meanwhile, splits appear to be developing between the interests favoring trade and those wishing to maintain maximum economic pressure on the Communist bloc.

Many Come to Head

The issue may come into focus upon an application by Minnesota businessman Dwayne Andreas for permission to export 20,000 tons of butter and 3,000 tons of cottonseed oil to Russia. These are not strategic materials and there is no policy barrier against them except a general policy under which the government reserves the right to bar any exports to Russia contrary to the security interests of the United States.

Officials said today the Andreas application is now before an interdepartmental committee made up of representatives of the State, Agriculture and Commerce departments. It deals with broad issues of economic security embracing the particular problem of East-West trade. This, of course, is not exclusively an American problem. In fact, it has been mostly an Allied problem.

Forces Behind Move

There are several forces pressing strongly for official sanction of greater trade with the Soviet Union and satellite countries. They are:

1. The development of a buyer's market — meaning a supply of goods running consistently above the demand.

2. The accumulation of vast stores of surplus agricultural commodities in the United States.

3. A slow move toward general easing of international tensions. The more the Soviets make friendly gestures, the more traders everywhere tend to look for business with the Soviet Union.

But on the other side is a set of arguments which remains powerful and which has many adherents, especially in the State Department and probably in the Defense Department as well. They include:

1. A major policy of the administration has been to exploit differences between the rulers and the ruled in all the Communist countries. A major source of trouble for the Soviet leaders has been low agricultural production. The export of any large quantity of foodstuffs such as fats and oils would run contrary to U. S. policy on this point.

2. Agricultural surpluses for foreign sale are often in effect subsidized by the government. The

Would Result In Savings, Say Backers

Commissioners Asked To Obtain 77 for Use Throughout County

Use of voting machines in Marion County was recommended today by the Board of Elections.

Machines would result in considerable savings to the county and would speed up the election count enormously, board members say.

In a resolution presented to the county commissioners this morning, the board requested the purchase of 77 machines in time for use in the fall election.

The machines would cost an estimated $111,650, but would save the county $200,379 over a 20-year period, board members said.

One-Year Study

The board action came after a one-year study of elections and voting expenses. Board members concluded "voting machines will be more efficient in conducting elections and will result in saving to the county."

Elections officials propose the county acquire the machines by issuing negotiable promissory notes to be retired in annual installments over a period of approximately 13 years. Use of this plan would not add to he tax rate, they point out.

From their study, elections board members arrived at an annual savings of $10,018 by using voting machines.

At this rate, the machines would pay for themselves in about 12 years. Thereafter, the county would nual savings "for at least the balnual savings for at least the balance of the life of the machines of 38 years or more," the board resolution said. Some machines now in service have been used for more than 50 years, the board discovered in its study.

Fewer Workers Needed

The savings would result from a reduction in the personnel needed at each precinct, and a reduction in the total number of precincts needed.

At present, six workers are needed at each precinct. With machines, only four would be required.

If machines are not purchased, the Board of Elections is faced with the expense of setting up 18 additional precincts in the city and county, it said in its report to the commissioners.

This will have to be done in order to comply with state law which stipulates that there be no more than 400 voters in each precinct—unless voting machines are used. With machines, there is no limit, although the board's request for 77 machines is based on an estimate of one for each 400 voters.

At present there are 30 precincts

Mather Goes To Kansas U. As Grid Coach

Massillon Mentor To Head Staff, Gets Contract for 3 Years

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Charles V. (Chuck) Mather high school coach at Massillon, Ohio, the past six seasons, today was given a three-year contract as head coach at the University of Kansas.

The salary was not disclosed.

Mather is expected to arrive here Jan. 25.

Predecessor Quit

The highly successful Ohio prep school coach succeeds Jules V. Sikes, who resigned Nov. 21 under pressure of the alumni after Kansas had won only two of its 10 football games.

Mather graduated from Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio, where he was an all around athlete, in 1937. He had successful high school coaching stints at Brilliant, Leetonia, and Hamilton, Ohio, before taking over at Massillon.

In six seasons at Massillon, Mather's team won 57 and lost only 3 games. Paul Brown of Ohio State and later professional league fame, earlier coached the Massillon high school to 82 victories and 8 losses in 9 seasons.

Fourth Since War

Mather, who coaches the standard T offensive, becomes the fourth football mentor at Kansas since World War II. Sikes succeeded George Sauer in 1946. Henry Shenk had held the post from 1943 'till Sauer accepted the post.

Indians Refuse To Hold POWs After Jan. 23

PANMUNJOM (AP) — An Indian spokesman said today his command will turn back 22,500 unrepatriated war prisoners whether the Allies or Communists want them or not.

The return will begin at 9 a. m. Wednesday (7 p. m. Tuesday EST).

Although the Indians are awaiting replies to letters of notification sent both commands yesterday the spokesman said the tenor of the replies will make little or no difference.

Asked by a reporter if the Indians would go ahead with their plan to get out of the prisoner of war business, the spokesman said with emphasis:

"It is not our plan—it is our decision."

His words echoed the determination shown by Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, Indian chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, who said of the Indian project "There has been no agreement—this is unilateral action by me."

Lending emphasis to their decision, a number of Indian officers were busily planning leave trips in Tokyo now that their work at Panmunjom is almost done.

Dovie Dean Due To Die Tonight

Facing Execution Unless Lausche Acts

MARYSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Unless Gov. Frank J. Lausche intercedes, Dovie Dean, 55-year - old grandmother, will die in the electric chair at the Ohio Penitentiary in Columbus tonight.

Mrs. Dean has exhausted every court appeal available to her to upset her conviction on a charge of poisoning her husband, Hawkins, 68, at their Clermont County farm home.

If Lausche does not grant executive clemency, Mrs. Dean probably will be moved to the penitentiary shortly before the hour of her execution—sometime after 7:30 p.m

Apparently calm, Mrs. Dean spent yesterday trying on the new print dress in which she is to die, giving away her posessions and "willing' her parakeet to Velma West, Cleveland murderess serving a life sentence at the reformatory for women where Mrs. Dean has been kept since her conviction.

She went to bed early, shortly after dinner last night.

Lausche Refuses To Act

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov Frank J. Lausche said today he will not intervene in behalf of Dovie Dean, 54-year-old Clermont County grandmother scheduled to die tonight in the Ohio Penitentiary electric chair.

Naguib Opens Anti-Moslem Drive in Egypt

450 Jailed by Police In Crackdown Against Outlawed Brotherhood

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Arrests mounted to 450 today in the government crackdown on the outlawed Moslem Brotherhood.

A communique from President Mohammed Naguib's Revolutionary Council accused the fanatical political-religious organization of conniving with both the Communists and the British, and with plotting a counterrevolution against Naguib's regime.

The communique said the brotherhood, which claimed a membership of two million at the height of its power in Egypt, conspired with the Communists for the purpose of fomenting disorder in this strategic Middle East country.

Representatives of the brotherhood also were charged with making secret contacts with the British resulting in a weakening of Egypt's position in the lengthy negotiations over the future of the vital Suez Canal zone.

The government dropped the ax on the brotherhood Wednesday, ordering it dissolved and its assets confiscated. Of the 450 arrested, only 20 have been set free. How many might face trial before a revolutionary court was not disclosed.

Lt. Col. Anwar el Sadat, one of the members of the Revolutionary Council now running Egypt, summoned newsmen to a special conference early today to detail the charges against the brotherhood. He had faced trial during the regime of the deposed King Farouk on charges of being a brotherhood supporter.

The communique charged C.M. Creswell, British minister to Cairo, and Treffor E. Evans, Oriental counsellor at the British Embassy, had met with Hassan el Hodeiby

Avalanche Deaths Total 116 in Austria

VIENNA (AP) — An avalanche-blocked river in Austria's British zone brought new flood danger today to 1,000 residents of the Soelk Valley of southern Austria. Rescue crews rushed to the area.

The Soelk River, a tributary of the Enns, was dammed up for a mile by a 400-foot snowslide. Officials feared the water might break loose to take a new toll of lives.

The death toll from west Austria's avalanches earlier in the week rose to 116 persons today, and 9 others still were missing. With 24 dead in Switzerland, 6 in Germany, and 2 in Italy, the latest Austrian dead brought the toll for the four countries to 148.

Austria counted more than 100 injured.

Peiping Radio Warns Truce Is Threatened

PANMUNJOM, Saturday (AP) — Red China's Peiping radio said last night the United Nations Command would endanger the Korean armistice by accepting the 22,000 Chinese and North Korean prisoners to be turned back by India from an anti-Red camp Wednesday.

The U.S. 8th Army already is making preparations to take back the 22,000 as war prisoners on that day—and then release them as civilians at 12:01 a. m. a week from today.

The first Red reaction to India's plan came last night in a Chinese language broadcast for home consumption. It was monitored and translated in Tokyo.

Peiping radio said America's intention to take back the prisoners makes the Korean situation much more critical. It did not elaborate.

India announced yesterday its intent to turn back the 22,000 to the U.N. Command and give back to the Reds the 21 Americans, 1 Briton and 325 South Koreans in a pro-Red camp. Yesterday India made it clear that when the transfer is being made any man wishing to change his mind and go home will be allowed to do so.

Kefauver Drafts Resolution

New Alternative Offered On Bricker Amendment

WASHINGTON (AP)—A resolution circulated among most senators may become the rallying point of the Eisenhower administration's attack on the proposed Bricker amendment to limit the government's treaty powers.

The suggested resolution was sent around to all but about 10 of the 96 senators last Saturday by Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn).

Unlike the proposal by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) and an administration-backed substitute by Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California, the resolution would not amend the Constitution, It would simply put the Senate on record as affirming certain attitudes toward treaties and their domestic effect. It would also require a recorded roll call vote when the Senate ratifies treaties.

Bricker argues that an amendment to the Constitution is needed to insure that basic American liberties shall not be taken away by treaties which, he says, might supersede domestic law and the Constitution itself. Lawyers disagree as to whether this is a real danger.

President Eisenhower has said Bricker's proposal would hamper his conduct of foreign affairs, while agreeing that no treaty should contravene domestic law.

There has been no public response to Kefauver's resolution idea from his colleagues. But administration forces are watching carefully for signs that it might break a deadlock on the highly emotional issue.

Compromise efforts are still going on. Bricker had a date today with Atty. Gen. Brownell and Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, at the Justice Department.

Time is running out on the compromise attempts, going on now

Two-Headed TV Set

And now it's two-headed television, designed, I expect, for two-headed people. Fills a crying need, all right, all right. The Allen B. Dumont Laboratories has developed a set which can receive two pictures at once. You wear a pair of polarized glasses which filters out one picture and leaves the other one. If you want to switch to the other one, you turn the glasses around.

J. CROSBY

In short, while the husband is watching the fights, the wife can be looking at Bob Hope. She's laughing. He's yelling: "For Pete's sake, keep your left up, ya dope!" The possibilities for marital chaos are endless. The minute the program is over, she's saying: "Why doesn't Bob Hope drop those Bing Crosby jokes?" He's thinking: "I owe Ryan 10 bucks. What ever made me think Mendez was a fighter?"

Two discontented people—but discontented about different thipgs. In the old days, they could both hoot at the same commercial and it was very good for their little souls. It brought them together. With this gadget, they got nothing to talk about except the high cost of living.

I HAPPENED TO BE on hand to watch this monstrous device the first time it was shown to the public last wek. Two shows were on — Conrad Nagel, emceeing a variety show, and some female baking a pie. Well, I put the glasses on one way and sure enough the pie disappeared and Conrad Nagel came through, handsome as ever. Then I tried the glasses on the other way around. Something went awry. (Conceivably I had a pair of defective glasses.) The pie swam back into view, all right, but Mr. Nagel stayed on. The Nagel face was right in the middle of the pie and the lady presently smeared it from top to bottom with whipped cream.

It was very entertaining, far and away the most entertaining cooking show I've ever witnessed. Some personalities, I reflected, are too strong for polariod, they'll shine right through anyway.

That brings up some interesting possibilities. An actor will just be making passes at some babe in the boudoir and, right smack in the middle of it, Hopalong Cassady will ride through, hell for leather. Don Newcombe will be throwing low inside pitches at Arthur Godfrey. (No polaroid is possibly strong enough to filter out Arthur Godfrey. If Paley can't control Godfrey, polaroid will never manage it.)

OVER IN RUSSIA, the livestock is being frightened out of its wits by Tarzan pictures, according to Pravda. Over here, where Tarzan has long since lost any scare value, they scare us with two-headed television sets. We're way ahead of them.

As a matter of fact, the technicians have all sorts of little surprises for you coming up. Along with two-headed television, we also soon may have no-headed television. This prediction comes straight from the lofty one-headed dome of Pat Weaver, NBC's new president, who is quoted in Sponsor magazine as saying:

'I'n the future no one will think of making a TV set that does not have a knob that turns the video off. They don't bother making that installation now because of the extra cost. But it is inevitable that people will want to listen to blind sets—even with variety programs like Berle.

Once you've watched a show a lot you can tell what it looks like and picture it in your mind. People will want to play their TV set like background music."

Weaver has made a good many startling predictions in his day but this is one of the most—well—interesting of all of them. Seems to me, though, that in the long distant past we had something like Weaver's headless television set. We called it radio.

Will It Work?

Foreign Policy Revision Poses Question for U.S.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The main question raised by Secretary of State Dulles' outline of the change in American military strategy and, in part, foreign policy is: Will it work?

He explained the change this week against this background in one of the most important speeches of his career:

This country realized how poorly it was equipped to fight a war when it had to fight suddenly in Korea. Then it began hastily to rearm and build up its ground armies.

This was a policy of emergency, Dulles said. In Korea it meant pitting Americans against the Communists on a man-for-man basis. The United States could not continue to do this every place fighting broke out.

The reason: the Communists not only outnumber Americans and their allies in manpower but are far more willing to sacrifice men.

Besides, if the United States attempted to keep huge forces under arms indefinitely, waiting for an outbreak like Korea, it would wind up in the poorhouse.

Either way the Communists could win: through American bankruptcy in men or money. Further, such a policy would let the Communists call the shots and pick the battleground, which invariably would not be in Russia or China.

So the Eisenhower administration, Dulles explained, has decided to save on both men and money by cutting down the size of the armed forces — except the Air Force—and putting its reliance on power to hit the Communists with a "massive" retaliation.

In short, the United States is warning the Communists that if they attack anyway they can expect that "massive" retaliation Dulles mentioned. He didn't mention retaliation with atomic weapons but it seemed implicit.

This is intended to be a long-term policy. "Maximum protection," he said, at a "bearable cost." This has been referred to in Washington as "more bang for a buck."

This retaliation, he said, would be at places "of our own choosing."

The first question this raises is: Will the United States carry out the threat if there is a new Korea? For instance, if China renewed the war in Korea, would this country bomb China?

If so, it would have to face the possibility of sudden attack by Russia, coming to the aid of her Chinese ally. That would well mean the start of world atomic war.

Would American allies, closer to Russia, go along with this? This is the problem the Truman administration faced, and decided in the negative, when Gen. MacArthur urged punishing the Chinese by bombing Manchuria.

Dulles is indicating the administration has made its decision—on the MacArthur side. The threat won't get its test unless the Chinese or Russians do attack.

But they do not necessarily have to repeat the Korean Experiment where they tested American willingness to do any defending and learned that the answer was "yes."

Their next move could well be by internal revolution. For instance, the United States could hardly retaliate against Russia if the Italian Communists tried to take over their government while Russian troops stayed behind their own frontier.

Dulles recognized a need for land armies by stressing the importance of "local" defenses which would be backed up, in case of attack, by the "massive retaliation" he mentioned.

But what he did not mention in his talk of a change in military strategy was that the Truman administration, until Korea showed the need for ground forces and limiting the war to Korea, had depended on its atomic bomb as a deterrent to Russian attack.

The Russians crossed up this planning by letting the North Korean communists do the fighting. The changed policy outlined by Dulles sounds reasonable but its value may not be known for some time. If it truly deters the communists it will have been effective.

Abbott To Become Leader of Marion Navy Club Monday

Richard Abbott will be installed commandant of the Marion Navy Club at joint installation ceremonies with the auxiliary Monday night. Others elected this week and to be installed Monday are Edward J. McAndrew, senior executive officer; Francis Layton, junior executive officer; Paul Cochran, paymaster; Evelyn Fox, shipswriter; Harold Metzger, chaplain; Allen O. Webb, master-at-arms; and Serge Kelly, historian.

Robert Vaughan, retiring commandant, will serve as trustee for three years. Arthur L. Watt, a past local, state and national official, will be the installing officer.

Lieutenant Col. S. G. Cortelyou, commander of the Marine Air Detachment of the Columbus Naval Air Station, will be the speaker for the occasion. Col. Cortelyou, who served in Korea, is planning to show motion pictures of the Marine action in which he participated.

A report of Sea Scout activities was given by Allen Webb, skipper, at this week's meeting. A social hour followed the business session.

Ridgway Sees No Signs Of New Fighting in Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said today Pentagon leaders do not see any evidence that the Communists intend to renew hostilities in Korea.

Ridgway, the Army chief of staff, was formerly supreme commander of Allied powers in the Far East.

He told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that the planned withdrawal of two U.S. divisions from South Korea would not weaken the American position but would provide greater flexibility of action.

Efforts To Get Korean Parley Going Stalled

Both Allies, Reds Hold Fast on Contradictory Terms for Conference

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Efforts to revive the stalled preliminary Korean peace talks remained at dead center today and both the Allies and Communists insisted they would never modify conditions for returning to the conference table.

Liaison secretaries adjourned for the weekend after a session described by Edwin Martin, State Department China specialist, as "3¼ hours of each side advocating its position."

Ask Delay Until Monday

The United States asked to meet tomorrow, but the Reds asked a recess until Monday.

Martin insisted that certain Red remarks be stricken from the record before the preliminary talks can resume. The Communists retorted that they would discuss only a date for reopening negotiations broken off Dec. 12. They also rejected again Martin's request that the secretaries confer in secret.

Special U. S. envoy Arthur Dean walked out of the conference hut last month. He flew back to Washington, saying he would not return until the Communists retracted their charge of perfidy—treachery

Reds Charge Deal Made

The Reds had accused the United States of conniving with South Korea in the release last June of 27,000 anti-Communist Korean War prisoners.

Dean told newsmen in New York yesterday, "I do not know how soon I will return to Korea. However, if we get word that the Communists have retracted their charges of perfidy against us, then I will return."

North Korean Liaison Secretary Ju Man Sup, spokesman for the Communists at Panmunjom, proposed for the second day that preliminary talks resume Saturday. He said that if the U. N. did not agree, it should name another date.

Red newsmen distributed texts of his statement, in which he said:

"Representatives of our side have made it unmistakably clear what liaison secretaries of the two sides should discuss and decide upon is the date for resumption of discussions."

Business Improving

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Cold weather in the North is increasing Florida tourist business, the State Chamber of Commerce reports.

Harold Colee, executive vice president, said yesterday there were 3 to 5 per cent more tourists in Florida last weekend than the corresponding date a year ago.

Six flags have flown over Mobile, Ala. — French, British, Spanish, United States, Republic of Alabama and Confederate.

First Severe Winter Storm Clips Montana

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — Blizzard conditions gripped Montana early today and the first severe winter storm of the season pushed into Wyoming and spilled over the Continental Divide on the heels of 40-mile winds.

The cold wave, spawned in Canada, was expected to cover all of parts of six northern states by Saturday.

The Helena Weather Bureau issued a special advisory that Montana temperatures would dive today and tonight, reaching 30 below in the north and 10 below in the south.

Up to 12 inches of snow had fallen in the Flathead Valley in northwestern Montana.

The forward edge of the storm numbed Sheridan, Wyo., and other points near the Montana border, and edged into Idaho and North and South Dakota. It was expected to hit Colorado tonight or early Saturday.

Blizzard conditions closed schools in Northwestern Montana. One commercial airline bypassed Helena yesterday because of limited visibility. Buses from the west were running nearly three hours late. Police discouraged any kind of auto travel because of slick highways.

Butter Deal Would Benefit Russians At Expense of U.S.

By The Associated Press

If the deal for sale of surplus butter to the Russians goes through, the Soviet government stands to make perhaps 500 per cent profit.

The Russians will sell the butter through their state retail channels at prices comparable to those charged for Soviet, Argentine and Danish butter now on sale—roughly 30 rubles per kilogram, which is the equivalant of $3.40 per pound.

Since the butter will presumably have been purchased at the export prices of the Commodity Credit Corp.—40 to 50 cents a pound—the Soviet government stands to make a profit of $2.90 to $3 a pound, minus of course the costs of shipment and distribution.

Meanwhile the whole thing will have cost American taxpayers from 15-25 cents a pound, since the U.S. government price to American farmers who produce the butter is 65 cents per pound.

For sale, by the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 102-ACRE FARM, located six miles north of Marysville, in Union County, or two and one-half miles southeast of Broadway. Farm consists of approximately 70 acres of cropland, 20 acres of open pasture, and some timber. Land in a good state of fertility, with clover and alfalfa now being grown. Property is improved with a 6-room frame dwelling with partial basement, barn (with shed attached), garage, poultry house, milk house, machinery shed, and concrete stave silo. Water supply from drilled well and cistern. Water under pressure and piped to the milk house and barn. Terms of sale: cash or 20% down—balance over 5 years at 5% interest. Sealed bids will be received until 1:00 P.M. on January 21, 1954, at Room 317, Old Postoffice Building, Columbus 15, Ohio, and will be opened publicly there at 1:00 P.M. on January 21, 1954. Bid forms and additional information, including specific directions for locating the farm for inspection purposes, are available at the County Office, Farmers Home Administration, Holley Building, Bellefontaine, Ohio. American Woman Called U.S. Agent By Reds in Ceylon

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—Ceylon's Communist party today accused Roda Miller, the American wife of a Ceylonese Communist leader, of being a secret agent for the United States. The Reds picked up her party membership card last week on "ideological grounds."

The woman, married to Joe de Silva, lived formerly in Bridgeport, Conn., according to Red sources. They said she and her husband came recently from Communist Poland.

The party recently blamed her for a split in its ranks and ousted her and four others from membership Jan. 7.

The Communist Journal said today that Party Secretary S. A. Wickremasinghe had been tricked "by the apparently sincere Communist Roda Miller." The paper acknowledged that a book she wrote about the executed atom spies, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, had been "an excellent exposition of American policy and frameup tactics." But the paper termed the book a facade to hide her "spying" and said it was "very reminiscent of American psychological warfare board strategy."

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Artists will lecture here Sunday on "styles in art." The public was invited to attend—but asked to bring their own chairs.

Marine Reserves May Take Courses

Correspondence courses are available to Marine Reservists, it was announced today by Lt. Edward A. Stacco, educational officer of the 74th Special Infantry Co., U. S. Marine Corps Reserve in Mansfield.

Marine reservists and men joining the unit may enroll in one or more of 200 courses. The courses cover vocational subjects such as diesel engines, jet aircraft power systems, and fundamentals of electricity. Courses are offered at no expense to the individual and text books are furnished the student.

Lt. Stacco pointed out that members of the Marine Corps Reserve are working out an important part of their eight year military obligation while still attending high school or holding down civilian jobs. At the same time, they have the opportunity of increasing their general knowledge by taking the courses.

Grocer Takes No Risks When Man Arrives With Pistol

BETHANY, Okla., (AP) — Frightened by a recent wave of grocery store robberies, the owner of Murray's Grocery here thought the wolf was at the door when a young man drove up with a .22-caliber pistol in his hand.

Murray locked the door and told the gunman he was closed for the day. He drove off. Murray furnished police with the license number.

After an investigation, Police Chief Fletcher McLain dropped the case. He said he traced the car to Dillon Williams, 24-year-old Bethany man.

Williams said he had been target shooting at Lake Overholser and stopped at the grocery to buy some dinner on his way home. He got out of the car and took the gun out of his pocket to put it in a tool box in the rear seat.

That's when the grocer got worried. Williams said when he was told the store was closed he drove blissfully off, unaware of the excitement.

MAYOR ACQUITTED

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Elmer C. Rost, 50-year-old former Defiance mayor, was acquitted of bribery charges in Common Pleas Court yesterday. A jury of eight women and four men took only an hour and five minutes to decide Rost was innocent of accepting $87.29 from Paul Mack, Firestone store manager, as a kickback in the sale of tires for city police cars. G. B. Hiatt, Rost's service-safety director, committed suicide after pleading innocent to similar charges last month.

What Is Washington?

Capital of U.S. City of Mixed Feelings

By HAL BOYLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—What in the world in Washington, D. C.?

Most great cities of earth you can peel like an orange, and get at the heart and the pulp of them.

They give even the most casual visitor a definite feeling. New York is a tower . . . Paris is a beating pulse, and the eyes of a new love telling old lies . . . Naples is a song in the night and bread crumbs on a tablecloth . . .

London is stolid courage in a fog . . . Shanghai is mystery and poverty that smiles at its own misery . . . Calcutta is a naked beggar pleading for alms beneath the shade of a Victorian monument . . Berlin is a question mark, saluting itself . . . Bombay is a tired mongoose fighting a bored cobra, while each waits for the Point Four program to give it a better way of life . . . Athens is a blue sky and antique stones and wine with a resin taste, just as it tasted when Socrates drank it long ago . .

Yes, most great cities are a definite feeling. But what in the world is Washington, D. C.? I know it is the capital of the United States, and that George Washington was able to sleep better near here than he was at Valley Forge, but what else?

I have come here many times, but all I get from it is a feeling of puzzlement. To me it is a vast jigsaw puzzle made up of thousands of sights and impressions, but I have never been able to fit them into a pattern, and I am beginning to doubt if there is a permanent one. This is a political city, and the only permanent thing in American politics is the next election.

Every once in a while I have a feeling I'd like to go out to the Lincoln Memorial all alone at midnight, look up at the statue of the Great Emancipator and ask, "Mr. Lincoln, tell me about this place." But I'm afraid the only answer would be a sigh. After all, they shot Lincoln here.

What in the world is Washington, D. C.?

Well, it isn't America any more than New York is . . . It is a mass of officials kneeling with their ear to the ground, and each one whispering nervously to his neighbor, "What are the grass roots saying?" . . . It is a place where most people come to from somewhere else they still call home . . . a camp of transients who have pitched stone tents here for a purpose, and then move on.

It is a two-way escalator where politicians pass each other while carrying out the will of the people . . . gladly on the way up . . . wryly on the way down . . . It is full of the front-page faces of yesterday, the faces of those who mistook what the grass roots were saying and no longer want to go back home . . . and they sit in their clubs and talk with old cronies of forgotten battles the voters no longer care about.

What in the world is Washington, D. C.?

Above all it is to most of those here a job . . . a warm desk out of the rain . . . a reach for prestige . . . the greatest fulcrum of power the universe has ever known . . . A fellow who comes here and doesn't want anything is a tourist.

It is a government girl saying, "Maybe if I'd stayed in Dubuque I'd be looking for a husband now instead of looking forward to a pension." . . . It is a lobbyist reaching for the dinner check and saying, "Well, congressman, as I was saying, it is only what the people want" . . . But he doesn't say whose people . . . Nothing is done here without invoking the name of that great mystery—"The People." . . . It is a small boy turning to his mother in the Senate gallery, and saying, "Mama, are you sure those men down there are really senators?"

What in the world is Washington, D. C.?

It is compromises and pleading and committees . . . It is a place where the cocktail party is a weapon, and gossip is not so much a vice as an industry . . . It is a town where everybody wants to feel he's in the real inside, part of "The Big Know" . . . It is a forum, a sounding board . . . It is lonely integrity and private chicanery . . . and jet-propelled opportunism . . . and stubborn sincerity.

It is museums and monuments and tons of secret documents and scores of busts of famous Americans, including "Flat-Mouth," the noted Chippewa chief . . . "Does it never change?" a visitor asks, and a cynic answers, "Sure. It changes from organized chaos to a confused optimism—depending on how you look at it."

What in the world is Washington, D. C.?

I still don't know. But I do know that the only thing that holds it together are the dreams of 161 million Americans—and a small ballot box.

The Dulles Doctrine

It is unlikely there will be a more sensational foreign-policy statement this entire year than the one made Jan. 12 by Secretary of State Dulles.

Speaking before the Council on Foreign Relations in New York City he laid down the Dulles Doctrine—a state paper of the first magnitude. Its significance was too broad to be grasped immediately, as was the significance of the Marshall Plan when it was first proposed in 1947.

The Dulles Doctrine is designed to take the place of the Truman Doctrine, also stated in 1947. This consisted of a declaration that the United States would help countries resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or outside pressures. It proposed that the help should be primarily economic and financial. "In helping free and independent nations to maintain their freedom," declared Mr. Truman before a joint session of Congress, "the United States will be giving effect to the principles of the Charter of the United Nations."

Greece and Turkey were the first beneficiaries of the Truman Doctrine. The latest beneficiary was South Korea. The doctrine called for local resistance when ever an aggressor tried to destroy freedom. The Truman Doctrine's shortcomings were demonstrated when local resistance led to a long, costly and frustrating war on the Korean peninsula.

Secretary Dulles says the Eisenhower administration will not let the United States become embroiled in any more local wars like the one in Korea. He says they are not sound military strategy, sound economics or sound foreign policy.

"The way to deter aggression," he asserts, "is for the free community to be willing and able to respond vigorously at places and with means of its own choosing" whenever its security is threatened.

"Local defense will always be important," explains Secretary Dulles. "But there is no local defense which alone will contain the mighty land power of the Communist world. Local defenses must be reinforced by the further deterrent of massive retaliatory power."

This, then, is the Dulles Doctrine—that hereafter any aggressor who treads the toes of a nation whose security the United States intends to preserve will be struck on the nose with all the strength the United States can bring to bear.

That would mean the strength of atomic bombs dropped on vital targets.

The significance of the Dulles Doctrine finally will dawn on minds now preoccupied with the chaff and chicken feed of politics. When this happens, the issues being warmed up for the little local wars of politics are going to look trifling.

Presidential Staff Work

In the light of favorable comments on President Eisenhower's first annual report on the state of the union, it is interesting to remember a significant detail of his military background.

Most of the comments on his message agree it was the most comprehensive and best-reasoned document ever sent to Congress by the White House. It created a frame of reference in which 14 other messages to Congress on specific subjects will take their places. It referred to approximately 50 specific programs and projects, not including two dozen specific tax reforms to be listed in the forthcoming budget message.

In military circles, the President was known for the thoroughness of his staff work. He had a genius for tying up loose ends—for preparing in advance to deal with every contingency.

As a presidential candidate, his admirers pointed with enthusiasm to his lifelong habit of assembling capable assistants, defining their duties and letting them function as a team. This, it was argued, was what the United States needed—more presidential staff work and less individual politicking.

The reason would-be critics are having so much trouble punching holes in President Eisenhower's conception of what needs to be done in the United States for the next few months is the same as the reason his military campaigns turned out well. He planned them that way.

Football as Is—For Next Fall

Some of the best news football spectators have had since numbers were put on the players' uniforms for easy identification is the decision of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's rules committee to let the rules alone for 1954.

Since this also is good news for the players and coaches, everybody can look forward to a happy season next fall. The coaches will bravely face the challenge of finding players who can shine on both offense and defense and the players they find can feel they are of heroic stature.

But there's something vaguely disturbing about the N.C.A.A.'s announcement. It doesn't seem to be well-timed—and the reason for this is not hard to find.

Another baseball season is almost at hand. In a little more than a month, spring training will start. Football season, which now runs from midsummer to midwinter, is washed up until next fall.

In baseball the rules never change. Even the players go on forever. Ah spring.

Flexible Crop Supports

Chaos Only Alternative to Ike's Farm Program

President Eisenhower has begun to give to the nation the sad details about the farm "mess" which his administration inherited from its predecessors.

Sen. McCarthy is reported to have joined a group of other Republicans in saying at a Republican party conference that the President's abandonment of the 90 per cent parity protection would be a political mistake in the middle west. The Wisconsin senator is wrong on this. He is assuming that the farm voters will react unfavorably without taking into account the side of the story that the President has to tell.

There are other senators who have committed themselves to a rigid system of price supports—Republicans as well as Democrats. But never before has the other side of the controversy been emphasized as Eisenhower and his aides probably will tell it in the next few months. The farm vote will not be lost to the Republicans when the facts are thoroughly understood.

THE FARMER is not a radical and, though he favors subsidies, he doesn't like low farm prices. What he doesn't realize is that by subsidizing and encouraging production, the farmer is taxing himself higher and forcing a lower price at the same time.

Eisenhower has courageously come to grips with a highly sensitive political problem, and his determination to fight it out in public debate is commendable.

The President says each farm crop has its own problems and each requires specific treatment but there are certain fundamentals that apply to all. He declares, first of all, that "food once produced must not be destroyed" and that excessive stocks can be removed from the markets by governmental action.

By this, it is not meant that the system which produced the excessive surpluses must be continued, and that's what the champions of the 90 per cent rigid price-support formula are asking the tax-payers to approve.

THE PRESIDENT is right when he says that "There should be no wide year-to-year fluctuation in the level of price support" and that "No single program can apply uniformly to the whole farm industry."

So far as the basic principle is concerned, however, Eisenhower properly lines himself up behind the necessity for government price supports on a flexible basis depending on market conditions, "in order to bring needed stability to farm income and farm production."

The present administration has sought advice from all sides and in a non-political way. The conclusions reached after months of study are sound from an economic standpoint. The only thing that stands in the way of their acceptance is political exploitation of the issue by those who, in certain areas, think it is unpopular to do otherwise. That's only because the farmers themselves have not been educated on the facts of the "mess" created.

EISENHOWER describes it thus:

"The urgency in this situation may be illustrated by a few basic facts. During the past year, the investment of the Commodity Credit Corporation in farm commodities more than doubled, increasing by about $2,500,000,000. As a result the financial obligations of the corporation are pressing hard against the $6,750,000,000 limitation on its borrowing authority.

"In order to assure that present price-support commitments on 1953 and 1954 crops will be covered, I shall request the Congress to take early action to restore the corporation's capital losses as of June 30, 1953, and to increase its borrowing authority to $8,500,000,000, effective July 1, 1954.

"The government's commodity holdings are enormous. It has investments in more than two billion dollars worth of wheat alone. This includes 440,000,000 bushels owned outright. About 400,000,000 additional bushels are under loan, the greater share of which the government can expect to acquire. This is more than the domestic wheat requirements of the entire nation for a full year.

"The cotton carry - over will amount to about 9,600,000 bales. Here again the carry - over is approximately equal to the domestic needs of the entire nation for a full year.

"The carry - over of vegetable oils may be about 1,500,000,000 pounds, roughly double the carry-over that should normally be maintained."

WHAT MAKES the situation worse is that consumer demand is at or near a record high level and in some instances products without price supports have done as well in price as some of those with price supports.

The solution of the problem is related to the opening up of foreign markets and the removal of rigidity from the government's formula.

A flexible system is the natural answer, with no commitment to do more than to sustain the markets from dropping precipitately or from rising too rapidly.

The President advocates the principle of gradualness and a range of from 75 to 90 per cent of parity, which ought to be enough to attain stabilization.

The alternative is a continuation of chaos and greater expense to all taxpayers without the lower living costs which increased production normally brings to the consumers. Their votes are also important to either political party.

Labor Message Advances States' Rights

By Raymond Moley

It is always risky to assert that a dead man would or would not have said this or that, but it is possible without much chance of contradiction to say that Sen. Raft would have heartily endorsed the Eisenhower labor message.

It bears little or no resemblance to the abortive draft that popped up during the last days of Durkin. It certainly shows little imprint of the advice of the New Deal Republicans in the palace guard.

It is so reasonably stated that it has blunted the attack of the irreconcilable radicals in Congress. Even the torrential eloquence of Sen. Morse was reduced to the trickle of two words, "unfortunately unsubstantial."

I admired especially the President's use of the expression "emotional maturity" in describing the nation's progress in dealing with the contentious issue of labor - management relations.

THAT DESCRIBES exactly what has happened in the seven years since Taft took over the Senate Labor Committee and proceeded to draft the legislation that bears his name.

The Truman tirades and the union chieftains' outcries seem in retrospect ridiculous abuses of the truth. Only the colossal daring of John L. Lewis makes it possible to speak at this time of a "slave law."

The outstanding features of the amendments seem to me to be the recognition of states' rights and the suggestion of a secret government - conducted strike vote. The latter will be the subject of most comment, but the former is more fundamental and in the long run more important.

It will be pointed out with some justification that the idea of a strike vote conducted in the highly emotional atmosphere that accompanies the breakdown of negotiations before a strike is somewhat visionary. When, as in such cases, reason is pushed aside and people take sides, it is hardly to be expected that card - carrying members will vote against their elected leaders.

THAT IS WHY the proposal of Sen. Smith, chairman of the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, to take a vote after a strike has been in progress a while, is more practical.

Perhaps a secret vote ought to be taken at both times, but the result is more likely to be reasoned after the people on strike have had some time while out of work to think and calculate.

In any event, this idea of a supervised vote is a natural extension of the old provision for a supervised vote on determining the proper bargaining unit.

It is likely that the most authentic Eisenhower touch in the message is what is said about state legislation in the field of labor.

He said: "The act should make clear that the several states and territories, when confronted with emergencies endangering the health or safety of their citizens, are not, through any conflict with the Federal Law, actual or implied, deprived of the right to deal with such emergencies."

HIS COMMENT on that point is followed by the statement that he is preparing further recommendations for clarifying legislation.

This is one of those fields in which the great federalizing movement of the past 20 years has advanced far beyond common sense and constitutional principle.

There was never any justification for the imposition upon a state of the rule of a federal labor board in matters in which the state has legislation and policies of its own.

In this, the President is again showing his deep conviction that the role of local and state government should be stressed once more.

Occasionally, in the practical application of his conviction on this subject he has been diverted by some of his advisers. But this message shows how deeply rooted that conviction really is.

A Job for Ex-Presidents

By MARK DANA

There is general public and official sentiment for the idea of a continuing share in government councils for ex-Presidents, as well as a financial allotment for them.

It has been suggested that a President become a senator-at-large, or a sort of associate senator for his native state, when he leaves the White House, but this idea involves some political difficulties. Meanwhile, minds have gone to work trying to figure out other places for such men of potential usefulness without embarrassment to anybody.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson (D.) of Washington has proposed in a Congress bill that all living ex-Presidents be made members of the National Security Council. This Council has little to do with domestic problems.

With the President himself as ex-officio head, and with the secretaries of Defense and the Treasury automatic members under present law, the council is concerned with the nation's foreign commitments, and with its processes and facilities and requirements for meeting those commitments.

It is a sort of advisory pool for the White House, and at first glance it provides the most feasible body suggested thus far, with a minimum of political involvements, for utilizing the experience and inside knowledge of a former White House occupant.

If the bill were to be enacted now, both Herbert Hoover and Harry S. Truman, partisan opposites, would join the council. Mr. Hoover's services and advice often have been utilized by his successors, and Mr. Truman's comments could not fall on deaf ears.

No doubt a livable stipend would be available for such outsider members, and considering the griefs of any presidency an occasional President might step out eagerly after one or two terms to a less rigorous council job, thereby maybe saving his friends some anxiety.

The general idea has much merit.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Rev. Eldred Barber was the first president of the Marion County Bible Society, auxiliary to the American Bible Society, which flourished in the county in the early 1830's. Adam Uncapher was the first secretary. Canvassers were appointed for each township and soon about $300 worth of books were sent for from the American Society. Later another allotment was ordered of which around $300 worth were accidentally burned in the store of William Bain in 1834 or 1835. When the Masonic block burned all records of the society were destroyed.

The American living room is still reverberating from the news of a new TV device which makes it possible to get two video programs at the same time over the same set. Something called the "Duoscopic" does the trick.

This could bring on the electronically produced nervous breakdown. There will be a riot when Mom is following a jackpot quiz, Popper is watching wrestling and Junior romps in with a demand for a whodunit.

Up to now when two people wanted two different programs on one set it could be accomplished only by assault and battery.

Man the dikes, men! Do you know what this new device means! . . . The DOUBLE COMMERCIAL! Two commercials for two products simultaneously! A beer eulogy interwoven with a detergent plug so you get all the irritation two people can stand at one time! Is there no limit?

It can lead to some gadget permitting four or five programs in one lump. There are people even now who contend the real need is for a TV set that will not even telecast ONE PROGRAM. We are not among them.

We have always had a yen to be able to solve the Bishop Sheen-Milton Berle Tuesday night conflict by getting them both at once, listening to the bishop but watching Berle. And it would seem nice to get a Monday night hockey match while the wife enjoys "I Love Lucy."

This sort of thing can mix people all up. It can confuse the public to a point where you will hear somebody asking for the "Arthur Berlefry Omnibus Scouts" and the "I Drag Lovenet Hour."

Leaving TV, there is another electronics discovery . . . a machine into which you can deliver a Russian speech and have it come out—presto—in English. We sneaked in and tried it out. Poured in one of Vishinsky's mildest tirades. There was a stripping of gears, and the machine came apart at the seams, giving us nothing but an Indian war whoop and the cry of an 'infuriated moose. . . .

How about a machine into which you pour a Russian and out comes Sir Gladwyn Jebb?

Bobo Rockefeller got $5,500,000 while Eleanor Holm settled for around $250,000. This disposes of the idea it's a great advantage for a girl to know how to swim. Presidential Aide Hears Complaints

Security Information Rule Under Fire

WASHINGTON (AP) —The man named to handle them says he has received "around a dozen" complaints about news being bottled up since President Eisenhower's new security information order went into effect a month ago today.

"Some of complaints deal with matters that don't seem to come within jurisdiction of the order at all, while some of the others may —there hasn't been time to decide," said Bernard M. Shanley, Eisenhower's special counsel.

He added in an interview that about half the protests filed so far deal with newsmen's unsuccessful efforts to have the administration make public a breakdown of reasons why 2,200 workers have been separated from federal jobs as security risks since Eisenhower took office.

The President has said his information order was designed to assure the public a freer flow of news about the government without jeopardizing national security. He designated Shanley to receive complaints from newspapers and other news media about operation of the order.

Shanley said he is doubtful whether he has any jurisdiction with respect to complaints that no breakdown has been given on reasons for the 2,200 separations from federal jobs.

"But I'm not going to split hairs on that," he said. "If there is anything I can do to help the press on that matter, I'm willing to try."

The "big trouble," he added, is that it is "almost impossible to provide a breakdown by specific reasons as to why we decided the 2,200 were security risks and shouldn't work for the government."

Citing an individual case, he said he had an FBI report on one federal worker as a user of narcotics, a companion of known Communists and "a crook."

"On all counts he is a security risk, but what category would you put him in if you were making any breakdown of reasons for separation?"

Eisenhower himself indicated at his news conference Wednesday the Civil Service Commission has not had time to classify the security risks more specifically. He said some of the 2,200 probably resigned without knowing they were under investigation.

Shanley said that so far he has flatly rejected only one protest against the new information order, and that he probably will throw out another.

The one rejection, he said, was the case of a newspaper protesting it was refused information on the amount of a former congressman's pension.

"In the first place, I don't believe the matter comes under the order," Shanley said. "In the second place, the formula under which such pensions are computed is public information. And thirdly, I think individuals are entitled to keep such information private if they want to. It's sort of like the privacy covering a person's income tax returns."

The complaint likely to be rejected, Shanley said, is one from another newspaper that its reporter (and all others) were barred from a meeting the Small Business Administration conducted. He said he feels the Eisenhower order was not intended to deal with matters of that kind.

Claim Denied Plaintiff in Suit

Jury Returns Verdict In Favor of Defendant

A Marion Municipal Court jury yesterday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of the defendant in a $1,676 damage suit. The suit was filed as the result of a traffic accident near Claridon in June, 1952.

Plaintiff was Claude Edmundson of near Mt. Gilead. His car was damaged in the accident which occurred at the intersection of State Route 95 and Marion County Road 178 near Claridon. Other vehicle involved was a truck owned by the defendant, Harry D. Key of 650 Mt. Vernon Ave. It was driven by Lowell Cook, and employe of Key.

Both were traveling east on Route 95 when Emundson started to pass at the same time Cook attempted to make a left turn onto Road 178. The resulting collision sent Edmundson's car out of control across the road where it turned upside down in the ditch. Edmundson claimed Cook had given no signal of intention to turn.

Verdict of the jury was that both drivers were equally negligent, in that Cook should have given a turn signal and that Edmundson was attempting to pass unlawfully. Ohio law prohibits passing within 100 feet of an intersection.

Edmundson was represented by the law firm of Martin and Hall of Marion and Key by Wiles and Doucher of Columbus.

Green Camp Lions Hear Address by District Governor

GREEN CAMP — Robert G. (Bob) Scott, district governor of 13-E, Lions International, paid an official visit Tuesday to Green Camp Lions Club.

In his talk on "Lionism," Scott explained the Lion Club setup from the zone meetings through the national convention. Governor Scott also attended a board of directors meeting which followed the dinner. The dinner was served by the WSCS of the Green Camp Methodist Church.

During the executive session one dollar per member was ordered paid to the state eye research fund. The state organization helps in eye research at Western Reserve and Ohio State Universities and the University of Cincinnati.

Jimmie W. Spears was named editor of the bulletin, succeeding Robert A. Smith. The board discussed arrangements for a contest among members for a name for the bulletin. Merle V. Lashey Jr., Charles Z. Carr and Cicero L. Diehl, the club's vice presidents, were named as judges in the contest. Every member of the club is asked to submit a name with an entry fee of one dollar. The winner will be awarded a year's dues. The entry fee will be used to purchase paper and printing for the bulletin form.

The official transfer of John H. Mills from the Marion club was received. Mills is president of the Green Camp club.

$3,000 Damage Set In Fire at Forest

FOREST — Firemen here fought a $3,000 blaze almost two hours Thursday at the C. L. McBride home, W. Zimmerman St.

The fire broke out about 9:30 a.m. when a furnace smoke pipe ignited a wooden partition in the furnace room of the home. Flames spread up a wall and into the attic, setting the north end of the house and the roof ablaze. Furniture in the downstairs rooms was removed from the house and upstairs furnishings were only water-soaked, Fire Chief Morris Burk said.

The fire was discovered by a nearby neighbor, Mrs. Robert Lawrence who noticed smoke coming from the house. The alarm was turned in by Mrs. Howard Conover, another neighbor.

The residents of the house were not at home at the time of the fire. The McBrides are the owners of McBride's Furniture Store and are attending a furniture mart in Chicago, Ill., this week. Furniture from the house was taken to the McBrides' storage room.

Andrews-Millisor Nuptials Solemnized in High Mass

A nuptial high mass in St. Mary Catholic Church Saturday morning solemnized the marriage of Miss Mary Alice Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Andrews of 244 Bellevue Ave. and Thomas W. Millisor. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Millisor of the Prospect-Lynn Rd.

MRS. THOMAS W. MILLISOR

The pastor, Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., officiated for the ceremony and was the celebrant of the 9:30 o'clock mass sung by St. Mary Choir. Organist was Miss Peggy Dennis.

The gold altar vases held bouquets of white snapdragons and marking the family pews were bows of white ribbon caught with huckleberry foliage.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. Fashioned with a fitted basque bodice of lace the dress was accented with a scoop neckline formed by pleated nylon tulle and lace applique. The long sleeves tapered into points over the hands and the bouffant skirt of layers of pleated nylon tulle was styled with a pannier of lace applique. A bicorne of Chantilly lace held her ballerina-length veil of imported silk English illusion and her bridal bouquet was of fleur 'damour and ivy leaves with tufts of nylon tulle. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Lois Glaser of Cincinnati was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Apking and Miss Marjorie De Brunner, also of Cincinnati. Their gowns, styled alike, were of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over matching taffeta. The fitted bodices had three-quarter length sleeves and the full waltz-length skirts were topped with a large matching bow in the back. Their crowns of nylon tulle and pearls matched the color of their gowns and their bouquets were roses. Miss Glaser's gown was in a coral shade and the bridesmaids wore peacock blue.

The attendants wore the bride's gifts of pearl chokers and bracelets.

Charles Andrews, brother of the bride, served as best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Ronald Gorby of Kenton and Robert Marshall.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece costume suit of blue taffeta with which she combined a pink hat and long pink gloves. Her flowers were a corsage of pink roses.

A breakfast for the bridal party and immediate families was at the Highway Hotel and in the afternoon from 2 to 4 the bride's parents were hosts at a reception in their home. Bouquets of flowers were used throughout the rooms. The table, laid with a lace cloth, was centered with a tiered wedding cake encircled with white pompons and huckleberry foliage and lighted with tapers. Assisting were Mrs. Robert Marshall and Miss Helen Haggerty.

When the couple left on a wedding trip through the south, the bride's costume was a gray suit, red alligator shoes and purse and white hat. Pinned to her fur coat was a corsage of cymbidiums. They will make their home on the Millisor Rd. upon the completion of their new home.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary High School and Mount St. Joseph School of Nursing, Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati and is now a nurse in the office of Dr. Daniel M. Murphy. Mr. Millisor, a graduate of Pleasant High School, served two years in the armed forces, a part of the time in Korea. He is employed with the Pollak Steel Co.

The rehearsal party was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews Friday evening. Mr. Millisor presented the bride-elect with a rhinestone necklace and earrings and gave his attendants billfolds. His gift from his fiancee was cufflinks and a tie pin.

Guests from out of the city included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huber, Misses Ruth Boyer, Dorothy Schulte, Mary Lois Willenbrink, Mary Frances Rehring, Mary Maley, Marian Foote, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Glaser, Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeBrunner, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Apking of Cincinnati; Miss Coleen Romer, Jack Malloy of Findlay; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sommer of Beverly, O.; Mrs. Lyle Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Edward LaFever of Springfield; Mrs. James Aukerman, Mrs. Glenn Richardson, Mrs. Clayton Aukerman, Miss Nancy Aukerman, Miss Jessie Ann Aukerman of Galion; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Bosch, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Menzie of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Paul of Cuyahoga Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rogers of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gruhler of Dayton, Mrs. Roy Lewis of Bellefontaine.

Church Activities

The Happy Thought Class of the First Evangelical and Reformed Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Finley Marshall, Hane Ave., Wednesday night. The meeting opened with the class song, roll call and the regular business session. Mrs. Dora Jones conducted devotions. A contribution to the March of Dimes drive and a pledge to the pipe organ fund were made. Plans for the congregational meeting next Wednesday were laid. The program featured a quiz program, "Your Church at Work." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Francis Rardon.

President Mrs. H. T. Weirick gave a report of the Marion County WCTU executive board meeting at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Martel WCTU at the Martel church. Mrs. Emma Cox led the devotional period.

Announcement was made that the county instiute will be held March 26 at the Oakland EUB Church in Marion. An article on temperance written by Mrs. Weirick was read by Mrs. Walter Black. A letter from Sen. Robert Hendrickson was read by Mrs. Kenneth Pangborn. It was announced that flowers will be placed in the two community churches in February in memory of Frances Willard.

The group will meet at the Roy Loyer home in February, when articles will be made for the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Sandusky and Mrs. Weirick will present a book review.

Central Ohio Monument Dealers Meet in Marion

Members of the North Central Memorial Art Club, made up of monument dealers from 17 counties in central Ohio, met Tuesday at Hotel Harding. Host for the one day meeting was Ralph Wagner of the Wagner Memorial Co.

The business session was in charge of Everett Nylen of Amherst, O., president. Conferences and discussions made up the day's program. A number of the members plan to attend the national convention to be held Feb. 12-16 at Atlanta, Ga.

Other officers of the club, which is more than 50 years old, are Arnold Lundberg of Fostoria, vice president, and Walter E. Dundore of Fremont, secretary and treasurer.

Hospital Ball Earnings Set New Record

If members of the Woman's Hospital Board seem particularly jubilant these days, there's a reason—the 1953 holiday benefit dance.

When the last ticket was accounted for and the last bill paid, the sum of $2,082.86 went into the board's treasury to carry on the work of the well baby clinic and the work at the City Hospital.

A final report on the dance, the 26th to be sponsored by the members in the interest of the clinic and their work at the hospital, was made at a meeting Wednesday by Mrs. Merle Hamilton, general chairman for the dance. The sum tops the record for returns on the dance.

While the board sponsors the dance, its success is the result of the interest and cooperation of the many patrons who attend the annual event, Mrs. Hamilton said in expressing the board's appreciation. The additional money will provide for an expansion of the board's work.

Hostesses for the meeting Wednesday were Mrs. Henry B. Hane, Miss May Ella O'Brien and Miss Emma O'Brien, at the Hy-Way Hotel. Luncheon was followed by a business session and sewing. During the afternoon the members completed 17 towels, three scarves, three T-binders, and seven blankets, and 17 diapers for the well baby clinic. Mrs. Robert C. Owens, chairman for the board's newest project, cookbooks containing recipes by the members, announced the sales are going well and books are still available from the members.

When the members meet in two weeks at the YMCA the hostesses will be Mrs. Delmar Hamilton, Mrs. Chester C. Roberts and Mrs. T. E. Sonnanstine.

Axle-Mile Tax Strike Studied By Teamsters

Union Heads Weigh Advisability of Protest Walkout by 10,000

CHICAGO (AP) — A decision on whether to strike over payment of Ohio's axle-mile tax may be made today by the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

Union heads met yesterday without announcing a decision and a spokesman said no statement would be made until today at the earliest.

James R. Hoffa of Detroit, international vice president of the teamsters, originally set the strike date for today but postponed it until after Jan. 20.

At issue is the new tax passed by the Ohio Legislature on trucks of more than two axles. AFL owner-drivers want the companies which lease their trucks to pay the tax, amounting to an average of $10 a trip through Ohio.

The proposed strike of more than 10,000 Midwestern owner-drivers would keep trucks from operating in or through Ohio.

A group of owner-operators which does not wish to be represented by the teamsters union has asked the President to invoke the Taft-Hartley act to stop the strike. No action on the request has been announced.

B. B. Nicholson, president of the United Truck Owners, which has headquarters in Akron, Ohio, wired Eisenhower "The free enterprise system is at stake, since more than 70 per cent of all motor transportation in interstate commerce is handled by owner-operators' equipment."

POST-MORTEN ORDERED

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A post-mortem has been ordered to determine the cause of death of William McDonald, 40, of Springfield, who was found dead in a Dayton house yesterday. Police said he may have died from fumes from a heater which had no chimney.

Students at OWU Use Books as Cold War Weapons

Texts Are Sent to Japan To Compete Against Soviet Volumes

DELAWARE—Students at Ohio Wesleyan University are making plans for a counteroffensive against one of the Communists' most potent weapons in the cold war — books subsidized by the Russian government and teaching the party line.

Working under the battle cry of "Let's Throw the Books at 'Em," the students plan to launch their first attack on the Japanese front.

STUDENTS IN THE geography and geology departments are spear-heading the movement. They have passed out handbills and put up posters telling the story of how Soviet-subsidized books are flooding the Japanese book stores and selling for about six per cent of the cost of American books.

The students are being asked to save their textbooks which they would ordinarily sell at the end of the first semester, put them with any surplus volumes on their shelves and during the book campaign in the first week of February "contribute them as ammunition in the battle for men's minds."

DR. ROBERT E. SHANKLIN, assistant professor of geology, is making a similar appeal among the faculty. In a way, it was Dr. Shanklin who inspired the whole movement on the campus.

Not so long ago, Dr. Shanklin got a letter from Dr. Shannon McCune, of Colgate, who is now Visiting Professor at the University of Tokyo. Dr. McCune wrote, in part:

"Stated very briefly and bluntly, I have found numerous book shops are providing at a low, and obviously subsidized cost, numerous Russian geographies and other texts. They may be absorbing the propaganda along with the information. At the same time, though American texts are available, they cost roughly 15 times as much as Russian texts . . .

"HERE IS MY idea. Could you and your colleagues suggest to your students, after outlining the situation, that those who have no further use for their texts at the end of the quarter or semester give them to you to send to Japan . . .

"When the books reach me I propose giving them to students here and in other universities. I will place a small service charge on them, roughly 50 cents a volume, for I feel certain that the books will be appreciated more if they cost something. With the proceeds I will in turn buy Japanese books, journals or maps and send them to you as a gift . . .

"THIS PROJECT need not be restricted to geography texts, but could well include books in any field of university studies . . . (This work) will be very worthwhile in this critical contest for men's minds and for the free search for truth with which we as students and teachers are deeply concerned."

Dr. Shanklin read this letter to his students and they have "taken the ball" from there. Books have already started coming in. And all signs point to the fact that the Ohio Wesleyan students are serious about their campaign — about "throwing the books at 'em."

BARRAGE OF BOOKS. These three students are among the leaders in a campaign at Ohio Wesleyan University to collect and send books to Japan to counteract Communist subsidized books which are being read by Japanese students because they can be purchased so much cheaper than American books. From left to right Sue Edwards, a Cincinnati senior; Charles McCurdy, a Marion senior, and Ann Swinehart, a Cleveland junior. McCurdy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCurdy of 135 Baker St. and is majoring in geology at the university. A graduate of Harding High School, he served in the Navy Air Corps three years prior to entering college.

DIES IN COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — William H. Rible, 85, of Columbus, an employe of the Ohio State Journal for 43 years, died yesterday of injuries suffered when he was struck by a car Dec. 7. Rible was business manager for the newspaper until his retirement in 1937.

Lorain County Fair Is 'Best'

Picked by Managers As Outstanding in '53

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Lorain County's 1953 fair has been judged the best county fair of the year on a point basis including scores for competitions and participation.

The selection was announced as the Ohio Fair Managers Assn. closed its three-day meeting last night. Myers Y. Cooper, former Ohio governor, presented a trophy marking Lorain County's selection.

Lt. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, commander of the 2nd Army, called modern times the most dangerous period since the Revolutionary War and said it is "supremely necessary" the United States keep its reserve strength at peak efficiency in a speech to the final banquet.

The association decided to renew efforts to get the state to subsidize by $3,000 each of Ohio's 94 county and independent fairs. Last year the state Legislature was asked by the association for a similar subsidy but the request—in the form of a measure which the House had passed—died in a Senate committee.

The group elected Russell G. Hull, Fremont, president; Charles J. Betsch, Chillicothe, first vice president; James Murray, Napoleon, second vice president; Miss Goldie V. Scheible, Dayton, executive secretary, and Frank B. Cooper, Piketon, treasurer.

Morrow Budget Hits All-Time High: $598,000

MT. GILEAD — Morrow County commissioners approved an all, time high appropriations resolution at their regular meeting this week. The total appropriation is $598,-452.54 as compared to last year's appropriation of $535,752.73.

All of the increase occurred in the motor vehicle and gas tax fund. The increase in expenditures was made possible by an increase in funds received by the county for road improvements.

Funds appropriated from the general fund totaled $205,111.12 and included:

County commissioners, $8,400; county auditor, $13,208; treasurer, $8,599.30; prosecuting attorney, $5,-393.00; bureau of inspection, $3,001; planning commission, $3; executive, $3; court of appeals, $3; common pleas court, $7,259; probate court, $9,380; juvenile court, $1,502; clerk of courts, $6,250.

Coroner, $405; courts, $12; elections, $13,550; courthouse and jail, $18,503; memorial buildings $1 other buildings and lands, $3,003; sheriff, $12,265; recorder $6,170; humane officers, $300; rural zoning, $3; agriculture, $14,100.54; general hospital and care, $1.

Tuberculosis hospital and care, $12,050; mental hospital and care, $2; registrars of vital statistic $100; other health, $1,903 county home, $20,000; child welfare board, $10,000; aid to dependent children, $6,460 soldiers' relief burials, etc., $9,085; poor relief, $2.

Other charity, $2; workhouse, $500; ditches, $404; engineer, $3,-496.66; insurance, $3,702; pensions, $3,500 taxes, $2; miscellaneous, $1,502 and unanticipated emergencies, $1,080.

Funds appropriated from the motor vehicle and gas tax fund totaled $355,999 and were as follows: engineer, $4,000; road maintenance and construction, $325,001; bridge construction, $5; bridge maintenance and repair $4; and other expenses, $26,989.

Other items appropriated were: dog and kennel fund, $8,120; aid for permanently disabled $4,194; bond retirement, $4; poor relief, $18,564.42; and aid to dependent children, $6,460.

A total of $300 for fox bounties was approved at the meeting. Fox must be taken to the nine persons authorized to make affidavits after Jan. 20. Commissioners also set aside $300 for apiary inspection. Name of the inspector has not been announced as yet. The purchase of a fire hydrant to be placed on the hospital grounds was also authorized.

Pleasant School Group Sees Film on Teaching

Following the regular business session of the Pleasant School Parent Teacher Association Thursday night at the school, the film, "Skippy and the Three R's", was shown and Marion city school teachers conducted a panel discussion of the film, which deals with modern teaching methods.

The business meeting was opened by president, C. E. Gorby, who led the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Howard Schwaderer was announced that there will be a basketball game Tuesday, Feb. 2, with proceeds going to the polio foundation. George Wood, program chairman, reported that the Boy Scouts will present the February program.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John P. Cox, chairman of the committee, assisted by Mrs. Catherine Rouse and Mrs. Frances McClaskey.

AFTER-THE-WEDDING EMBRACE. Glamor girl Marilyn Monroe of the movies and baseball great Joe DiMaggio go into a clinch outside the chambers at municipal court in San Francisco where they were married in a ceremony closed to the public. Afterwards, photographers and newsmen had a field day with the good-natured pair.

Bride of Yankee Clipper

Marilyn Monroe Weds Ex-Star Joe DiMaggio

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Joe DiMaggio, the former New York Yankee Clipper, has carried off his Hollywood lovely, Marilyn Monroe, leaving millions of fans wondering what will happen to her movie career.

They were married in Municipal Court here yesterday after a two-year romance.

The ceremony was to have been secret. But an estimated 500 persons heard about it and jammed the corridors.

Judge Misses Chance

Municipal Judge Charles S. Peery, who performed the brief ceremony, said plaintively, "I forgot to kiss the bride. And I'm sorry."

But Joe kissed Marilyn repeatedly, if somewhat bashfully, for news photographers.

Then he whisked his cover girl away, saying, "We've got to put a lot of miles behind us." He declined to say where they were driving on their honeymoon.

It was a single-ring wedding, with Marilyn promising to "love, honor and cherish"—not obey.

Joe's best man was his restaurant manager, Reno Barsocchini. Mrs. Barsocchini was matron of honor. Also present were Joe's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Tom DiMaggio, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank (Lefty) O'Doul. It was O'Doul, now manager of San Diego in the Pacific Coast League, who gave Joe his start in baseball when he managed the San Francisco Seals.

The crowd just gathered. First, there were cameramen and reporters, then City Hall attaches. Finally, just plain people. Some tried to peer over the transom into the courtroom.

After the wedding, Miss Monroe said, "We're very happy."

Joe just grinned.

Asked when they decided to get married, he answered, "We have been thinking it over for some time. We decided two nights ago when we had a birthday party for Tom."

Children? Marilyn said she'd like six.

Joe said, "We'll have at least one."

Joe, 39, has one son, Joe Jr., 12, by former Broadway actress Dorothy Arnold, who divorced him a decade ago.

Marilyn, who gave her age as 25, also was married previously—at 16 to James Dougherty, a policeman now living in Van Nuys, Calif., whom she quickly divorced.

DiMaggio said they would make their home in San Francisco, going to Hollywood whenever she had to make a movie. But she said she had no plans now for films. She was suspended last week by 20th Century-Fox for not showing up for a role in "Pink Tights." In Hollywood, a studio spokesman said she told him she would be there in a week but nothing was said about her working on the movie.

Next Wednesday Is Deadline on Sale Of Dog Licenses

Deadline for securing dog tags is next Wednesday, Marion County Auditor Maurice Clements reminded dog owners today.

He announced that his office in the courthouse will remain open continuously from 8:30 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday for their convenience.

Ordinarily the office closes at 12 noon on Saturdays.

Licenses for male and female dogs cost two dollars, while kennel licenses are ten dollars. All dogs three months old or over must be licensed.

Only 2,200 licenses for an estimated number of 6,500 dogs in the county have been purchased to date. A total of 6,504 tags were issued in 1953.

Trade

government would have difficulty justifying the subsidized export of any foodstuffs to Russia.

3. A basic rule of U. S. foreign economic policy is not to export surpluses in such a way as to interfere with normal trade patterns of friendly countries. Countries other than the United States, notably those of Western Europe, are normal traders with the Soviet Union. A heavy export of goods there might defeat U. S. policy interest in maintaining and expanding these trade patterns for countries to which billions of American aid dollars have gone.

4. Despite the relaxation of cold war tensions, there has been no real evidence of any change in Soviet policy or purposes.

Filling Station Operator Shoots, Wounds Burglar

CLEVELAND (AP)—A filling station operator early today shot and critically wounded an 18-year-old youth who he said was breaking into his station.

Donald W. Myers, 24, of Willoughby, told police he was sleeping in the rear of the Euclid avenue station when he heard the sound of breaking glass. He grabbed a pistol and fired five times at a youth he saw smashing glass out of a rear window.

City Editor Killed In Bus-Car Crash During Snowstorm

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J. (AP)—Harold E. Keenan, 51-year-old city editor of the Plainfield Courier-News, was killed last night in a collision between a car and a bus during a snowstorm.

Two other executives of the Gannett newspaper were hurt in the mishap in which their car was bounced 35 feet into a steel pole.

Injured were Paul E. Smith, 56, of North Plainfield, managing editor of the Courier-News, and A. Wallace Zimmerman, 54, Plainfield, assistant publisher and advertising director.

Smith was released after treatment at Muhlenberg Hospital in Plainfield. Zimmerman was detained and reported in fair condition.

Keenan was chairman of the New Jersey Associated Press' Continuing Study Committee. He was to have hosted a meeting of the committee in Plainfield next week.

Some Back Roads Covered With Ice

A light snow mixed with freezing rain over the night left driving conditions on highways in Marion County and the area hazardous.

The temperature dropped only to 31 at its lowest point and near noon was up to 34. Total precipitation yesterday was only .01, weathermen here reported.

The Marion post of the state highway patrol reported this morning that state highways were in good condition but secondary roads were slippery.

The patrol reported that every main highway in the county has been salted. This, coupled with a rise in temperature, has left them wet but not excessively slippery.

Art Exhibition Planned Here By Junior Guild

It was announced that plans had been formulated to bring an art show to Marion this spring for a one-week exhibition when the board of directors of the Marion County Junior Service Guild met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bruce Tibbals at 329 Powhattan St.

Mrs. Donald Schlientz, community arts chairman, made the announcement. Mrs. Hugh Gregg is chairman of the project, the first of its kind to be sponsored by the Guild. No date has yet been set but the general public will be invited and no admission will be charged, Mrs. Schlientz reported.

The meeting was devoted to committee reports and also to the discussion of future policy changes of the organization.

Mrs. Schlientz also reported the radio plays presented each Saturday morning over WMRN by children of the grade schools had been well received this year. Mrs. Roger Morgan is chairman of the project which has been running three years. Students record plays on Wednesday of each week and they are presented on Saturday mornings.

Mrs. Robert Kramer, welfare chairman, made a report on the Give-a-Christmas Clearinghouse. A total of 397 baskets were distributed to needy families, an increase of 70 over the previous year.

A report was made on the kindergarten Christmas party which was held Dec. 18 at the parish house of the Episcopal Church. A total of 24 children and their parents attended.

Mrs. Charles Harmon, Guild president, presided over the business meeting.

Bricker

for about three weeks without success. The Bricker proposal is scheduled as the Senate's next major business.

Knowland said last night: "It is the firm judgment of the entire Republican leadership of the Senate that further efforts should be made to work out an area of agreement."

Democrats Watching

With the administration backing Knowland's proposed amendment and Bricker standing firm on his language, the impasse has dug deep into Republican unanimity, with Democrats generally watching in silence.

It is for these practical and strategic reasons that the administration reportedly looks favorably, if not too optimistically, on the resolution idea. As one administration aide put it: "The resolution may become a rallying point. It is certainly preferable to the Bricker amendment and something has to be done."

The resolution would be, at its strongest, a stern message from the Senate as to how it feels about treaty making

In brief, it provides that "revered and historic principles are solemnly affirmed." The stated principles are that: (1) no treaty can override the Constitution, (2) Congress can pass laws to alter the domestic effects of any treaty, (3) U. S. courts can throw out any treaty or law found unconstitutional, (4) the federal government must have the right to make treaties, and (5) the Senate can attach reservations in ratifying a treaty so as to make its domestic effects depend on congressional enactment of a law.

The resolution closely parallels Knowland's proposal. But it appeared to take a big step backward from provisions in Bricker's measure which would (1) require legislation to make a treaty effective as domestic law and (2) give Congress regulatory powers over executive agreements.

Merger

A. E. Barit, Hudson president, will be director and consultant in American Motors. George W Mason, president and board chairman of Nash-Kelvinator, will be president and chairman of the board of the new corporation.

Joint Statement

In a joint statement the companies said their combined sales in the year ending last Sept. 30 topped the 680-million-dollar mark.

During this same period, Hudson and Nash turned out a combined auto production of 244,507 units while Kelvinator manufactured 638,000 household and commercial appliances.

The merger will make American Motors the fourth largest automobile producer in the nation, behind the "big three" of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

The consolidation will be the second in the auto industry within the past year. Last spring Kaiser Motors bought Willys-Overland Motors for a reported 62 million dollas.

More recently, GM bought the Kaiser Willow Run properties in Michigan and Chrysler purchased all Briggs Manufacturing Co. car body plants.

Two Drivers Fined In Municipal Court

Two motorists were fined a total of $215 and costs when they pleaded guilty today to traffic charges filed against them in Marion Municipal Court by city police and the state highway patrol. Stiffest penalty went to Robert Leroy Littell, 23, of LaRue, charged with drunken driving by the state patrol. In addition to a fine of $200 and costs, he was sentenced to five days in the Marion County jail and his driver's license was suspended for three years. Judge W. Dexter Hazen said court recors show this was his second offense on the same charge.

Morten Bolen, 42, of the Werley Hotel was fined $15 and costs on a charge of driving without a driver's license filed against him by city police.

Machines

in the city, and 25 in the county. These would have to be increased to 47 in the city and 26 in the county. This would involve more expense for sufficient new equipment, supplies and workers to operate these additional precincts if the presently-used paper ballots must be continued.

The expense necessary to establish these 18 new precincts can be avoided, elections officials say in their study report, if the 77 voting machines are purchased. They would place 49 in use in the city and 26 in the county. Two machines would be held in reserve.

With the installation of these machines, it would be possible for the board of elections to consolidate 10 precincts in the city and 6 in the county, thus effecting a substantial reduction in the cost of conducting elections in Marion County.

Based on actual 1952 expense figures of $26,979, it is estimated that the addition of 18 new precincts would increase that figure to $31,212, while with the installation of 77 voting machines in 20 city precincts and 19 county precincts, the cost would be $20,989, for a saving of $10,313.

Manpower Savings

With the use of voting machines, only four persons would be required in those precincts where one machine is proposed, and six persons in those precincts where two machines would be placed in operation.

Listed among the chief advantages of the use of voting machines over the present paper ballot system are the speed and accuracy in obtaining election results.

The Montgomery County Board of Elections in Dayton, where 460 voting machines are in use, lists speed as the chief advantage, reporting that in a recent election "the first returns were filed within 30 minutes after the voting had ended and the full tabulation was complete by 9:30 p.m."

Here in Marion County during the November general election last year, the first reports did not begin coming in until around 9:30 p.m., while the last report was filed around 2 a.m. the next morning.

New York Was Pioneer

New York State, over 50 years ago, was the pioneer in the use of voting machines. It is now 100 per cent equipped with them, and can list some machines in service for over 50 years.

Among Ohio cities completely equipped with voting machines are Dayton, Willard, Youngstown, Lorain, Elyria, Norwalk, Willoughby, Springfield, Findlay, Painesville, and Sandusky.

Columbus currently has 250 machines in operation, and is contemplating the purchase of 125 additional ones during 1954.

In addition to these cities, there are approximately 250 smaller towns and villages in Ohio completely equipped with machines.

Nine Ohio counties use voting machines. These counties, with the number of machines in use, are as follows: Clark, 170; Montgomery, 460; Lake, 111; Lorain, 236; Huron, 60; Hancock, 85 Mahoning, 375 Erie, 93; and Franklin, 250.

In addition to these counties, the Marion County elections board learned during its study that elections officials in Richland, Washington, Sandusky and Ross Counties have under consideration the acquisition and installation of voting machines.

In their report, local elections officials cite that the economy of voting machines is not their only advantage. They add that machines also make easy and speedy voting, there is a complete assurance of a secret ballot, there are no spoiled ballots, there is an accurate count, and a preservation of a permanent record of the election results.

The report emphasizes that voters would have ample opportunity to observe the operation of voting machines and acquaint themselves with their operation before being used at election time.

4 Children Die as Fire Destroys Florida Home

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Four small Negro children died last night when fire turned a frame house into what witnesses described as a "roaring furnace."

Desperate rescue attempts by neighbors and a passing salesman were futile.

Films Planned For Tonight's Union Service

At the service of the union Spiritual Victory Crusade tonight at Epworth Methodist Church, featured in addition to the sermon by Rev. "Charlie" Taylor will be colored moving pictures he has taken of "The Great Northwest." These will include scenes from northern California to Victoria, British Columbia. The subject of the sermon will be "The Man Who First Rode in a Submarine."

Music Night was observed Thursday night with a concert of piano numbers by Rev. Laurie Taylor. The theme of the evangelist was "Who Is Jesus?" He asked, "What strange magnetism draws us to this man Jesus'?"

"We know nothing of what He looked like," the speaker continued. "The story recorded in the New Testament indicates a man who never traveled more than 200 miles from His birthplace, never mixed with the great of the earth, graduated from no university, but was executed as a common criminal by an obscure official of a small occupied protectorate of the mighty empire of Rome.

"Yet more people would die for Jesus today than all the dictators of earth would be able to get together. He had the most brilliant mind in the history of man. His personality made God real to the human race and He was the one altogether perfect, who had all the final answers to the problems of life.

"If you don't know this Jesus it is because you have not put on His robe. If you do, as related in the soty of Marcellus in the book called 'The Robe' you too will never be the same again. No one can follow Jesus, wear His cross and honor His name without being changed into something he never could be in his own strength. Put on the robe and see what Christ can do for you."

State Can't Collect $3 Boat Dock Fee Because of Mixup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A legislative mixup will prevent the state from collecting an annual $3 fee from owners of private boat docks on Ohio's inland lakes.

Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill made that ruling in an opinion to Director A. W. Marion of the natural resources department.

O'Neill said the mixup came about this way:

The 100th General Assembly changed conservation laws to impose the dock fee in statutes effective last Oct. 19. But another legislative act made minor changes in the same section of the law without including the dock fee. The revised law became effective Oct. 26.

O'Neill said the later enactment repealed the first and left standing the statute that lacked a dock fee provision.

Security

be just before the November congressional elections.

Rep. Kean (R-NJ), a Ways and Means Committee member who specializes in social security, predicted today Congress would accept the President's program "substantially as proposed."

He foresaw little opposition to the benefit increases, or to a proposal permitting retired workers to earn up to $1,000 annually and still draw social security benefits. The present law forbids such payment to a worker between 65 and 75 for any month in which he earns as much as $75.

Kean said the American Medical Assn. would fight expansion of coverage to include doctors, and a proposal to give permanently or totally disabled persons full benefits based on their period of work, not counting the period when they would be forced out of covered employment. But he said he thought these sections would be approved.

Democrats on the Ways and Means Committee generally praised the program and noted that it included several features proposed by former President Truman but rejected by Congress.

Contract for Ditch Awarded in County

Marion County commissioners Thursday awarded a contract for the construction of one ditch and set a date for hearing assessments on another ditch.

Construction contract for the Oak Knolls ditch in Marion Township was awarded to Jack Friend of Bycyrus on his low bid of $1,577. Only other bidder was the firm of Clutter and Trafzer of Marion at a cost of $1,821. This ditch was petitioned for by the Marion Farm and Home Sales Agency, Inc.

Feb. 4 was set as the date for hearing assessments on the Rider Ditch in Pleasant Township, which was petitioned for by the Marion Country Club Holding Company.

Evidence indicates that cigars were first made commercially about 1840.

Mason Appointed Crusade Chairman

Appointment of Robert T. Mason, manager of radio station WMRN, as Marion County chairman of the Crusade for Freedom was announced today by Robert A. Weaver of Cleveland, Ohio chairman of the crusade.

Objectives of the crusade, scheduled Feb. 12 to 22, are the gathering of 25,000,000 signatures on "Freedom Scrolls" and collection of 'Truth Dollars" to help operate Radio Free Europe's 21 radio transmitters.

"Through Radio Free Europe we can reach...millions of people... who form one of the major deterrents to further Soviet agression," said Weaver. A dollar will pay for broadcasting about 100 words to persons behind the Iron Curtain, he explained.

National chairman of the crusade is Henry Ford II and it is sponsored by American Heritage Foundation.

City Government Forms Discussed By Women Voters

Forms of municipal government was the topic of discussion for groups of the League of Women Voters meeting in the YMCA Wednesday afternoon and night.

The morning meeting was under the leadership of Mrs. B. N. Salzman who presented the charter resource committee members, Mrs. J. D. Torrance, Mrs. Harold Williams, and Mrs. J. W. Fretz, who gave the facts on the mayor-council forms, commission form and manager-council form, respectively. This was followed by a discussion of the pros and cons of each form and a discussion of local needs.

The evening meeting was under the leadership of Mrs. William Diem and Mrs. Harold Fetter presented the resource material.

From the study of these forms, which will be discussed further in the Jan. 27 meeting of the League, and again in the March meetings, members will come to a decision on a plan which would seem workable for Marion's needs.

With regard to the work of the local charter commission, League resource members stressed the point that the home rule charter is the important thing and that the form of government adopted under it could, once the charter is adopted, be subect to change by the citizens whenever deemed necessary. Until the provisions of the charter which will be proposed are published, the League will be unable to approve or disapprove.

CORRECTION

It was incorrectly reported in The Star Thursday that James Frank, arrested on a charge of insufficient brakes, was committed to county jail on failure to pay a $15 fine. He paid the fine and was released.

Republicans Back Stief for Post on Board of Elections

The executive committee of the Marion County Republican party at a meeting Thursday afternoon endorsed Robert Stief to succeed himself for a second four-year term as a member of the Board of Elections.

The endorsement will go to the secretary of state's office where appointments are made, Ralph Carhart, executive committee chairman, reported.

The Democratic party executive committee, headed by Tom Fetter, is expected to convene Tuesday to make its endorsement.

Endorsement by the county committees virtually assures appointment. The secretary of state customarily appoints men endorsed by the committee.

The communique said El Hodeiby and the other leaders discussed British policy on the Suez negotiations and this made it more difficult to get the British to come to terms for removal of their troops from the Suez Canal zone.

The British Embassy said it had no comment. British sources remarked, however, there would be nothing extraordinary or unusual in their diplomatic representatives explaining the British point of view to anyone who might request it.

Marion Man Sentenced To Term in Workhouse

Ernest W. Morgan, 42, of 474 N. Grand Ave. was sentenced to 30 days in the Columbus Workhouse and fined $25 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a petty larceny charge yesterday in Marion Municipal Court.

Morgan was arrested Jan. 11 on an intoxication charge by city police. Yesterday, while he was still being held on this charge, a warrant charging him with stealing a $20 wool blanket from the Union Depot Hotel was filed against him by Harry E. Stepp, hotel manager. Morgan was committed to the workhouse yesterday afternoon.

Red China

By George Sokolsky

Referring to China, in his "State of the Union" message, President Eisenhower said:

"We shall continue military and economic aid to the Nationalist government of China."

SOKOLSKY

The single reference to the subject evoked great applause from the Congress, but only after the message had been carefully read did it become clear that not one word was said about the more critical question on the American policy toward Communist China. Regarding this, President Eisenhower did not say what American policy is.

Referring to South Asia, President Eisenhower said:

"In South Asia, profound changes are taking place in free nations which are demonstrating their ability to progress through democratic methods. They provide an inspiring contrast to the dictatorial methods and backward course of events in Communist China . . ."

THIS DOES NOT answer the question of recognition of Communist China. It is no secret that an effort was made out of Washington to give the impression that Vice President Nixon, after his return from the Far East, favored such recognition.

Nixon, realizing what was being done, hit out straight by a total denial of his support for such recognition. He said that he opposed it.

Senate Majority Leader William F. Knowland, in a "Meet the Press" discussion last Sunday, most emphatically opposed recognition either by the United States or the United Nations.

The British are employing all their strength to bring about the recognition of Communist China. It is the focus of their diplomacy at this moment. They resent the American resistance to what they regard as an essential trade policy.

A factor in this situation is Arthur H. Dean, our most recent negotiator at Panmunjom and law partner in Sullivan and Cromwell of both John Foster Dulles, secretary of state, and Allen Dulles, head of the CIA.

DEAN HAS gone through a harrowing experience with the Chinese Communists at Panmunjom. Undoubtedly he was sent on this mission because of his close relations to the secretary of state and his ability as a negotiator. He had also been associated with the Institute of Pacific Relations.

In a letter to Clayton Lane, executive secretary of the Institute, as recently as April 18, 1949, he wrote:

"I realize that you have come into an exceptionally difficult situation, but I think we might go back to the publications of the institute and with the help of Larry Rosinger point out the difficulties our State Department is now facing in attempting to get up a constructive policy for China. I think we might make a very real contribution to the subject if we could state very objectively, but explicitly, problems which we now face in China. I am sure Owen Lattimore would be a great help in this."

IN THIS same letter, he said the following:

"I hope you won't get discouraged. It is tough but I think worth while. You have my complete support but (1). I would not mention the Communist attack in relation to IPR publications, (2) for income tax as well as policy reasons I would not indicate we are engaged in pro-or-anti-Communist attacks, (3) I would not indicate you have been brought in, to relieve a bad situation . . . Some way we must solve the Russian problem. It's up to us to find out what makes them tick; why they are what they are; it's not up to us to fight Communism. If we try that we have no function; we must expose how it works, what it is, what it does, when it fails."

A man who could in 1949 write, "it's not up to us to fight Communism," surely should not have been hurt by Chinese Communists. But they wore him down. He returned to the United States.

WHAT INTELLECTUAL and psychological effect this has had upon Dean, I do not know.

Varying reports come out of the State Department to the effect that he finds the present situation hopeless because the Chinese Communists are playing for recognition, not for the solution of the Korean question.

I have not a tempted to confirm these reports because what really matters is whether the State Department, in a justifiably desperate desire to get out of the Korean situation, will finally decide to offer Red China recognition in the hope that thus some progress will be made in the negotiations.

Had President Eisenhower mentioned this subject, the response might have been startling.

Slump Stoppers

By Victor Riesel

Everybody is talking depression—except the experts. These Washington veterans, who've been around long enough to prepare the vital economic statistics for Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman and who now are sending up to President Eisenhower the data on which sweeping government policies are based, see no depression. Not even any alarmingly serious recession.

RIESEL

Their confidential memos have told the President's advisers in the past few days that this nation can expect mounting unemployment during the next six months. By July the nation will have to move swiftly to make work for some 3,500,000 to 4,000,000 jobless at the worst.

Then, say these skilled specialists, the latter part of 1954 will see the damming of creeping unemployment, and its tapering off into a definite upturn by next fall or winter at the latest.

THIS COMES from the men who've not been rushed into public year-end statements or predictions. It comes from sensitive men who know that while some 3,500,000 will be looking for work, close to 60,000,000 men and women will be bringing home money for the groceries, clothing and even millions of automobiles and scores of thousands of new homes.

These experts say that with the end of the shooting war, joblessness had to come in the time lag between cutbacks in military orders and the launching of hundred - million dollar construction projects. Night shifts are now being eliminated in many plants and workers with low seniority are being hurt.

Sudden lack of need for speedy production and the end of combat losses of fighter aircraft have caused layoffs in that field.

Overtime is disappearing in all but the restricted weapons fields. We need fewer jeeps and trucks because combat is over—and $140 million dollars worth of orders have just been slashed.

Also, in an effort to aid the internal business conditions of our allies, we are placing hundreds of millions of dollars worth of orders abroad.

THE JAPANESE, for example, are expecting us to hand them 90 million dollars for the production of standardized ammo, machine guns, mortars and carbines to equip themselves, the South Koreans, Nationalist China and the Philippines. We are also calling thousands of construction workers in from our foreign bases.

So we find over 125,000 again jobless in Michigan, with about 80,000 of them idle in Detroit., And groups of 1,000 to 4,000 are being laid off all across the industrialized Northeast as well as the Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Western Pennsylvania sectors.

But, say the experts, the special "task forces" under President Eisenhower's economic chief, Dr. Arthur Burns, have alerted the White House. In a few months, "lavish" public works programs will be launched.

Typical of these are two huge construction projects in Northern New York. There, a new airforce base and the St. Lawrence power development will cost at least $675,000,000. Over 13,000 new jobs will be created.

Whole towns will spring up—and millions more will be spent on schools, hospitals and homes for some 50,000 newcomers to the area. The base will give upward of 5,000 construction workers jobs for two and a half years. The power project will employ 8,000 men for almost seven years.

MULTIPLY THESE ventures by the score, spot them around the U.S. — and you'll have some idea of the scope of White House plans for the next six months.

Coupled with this is the knowledge that savings are still very high; easy money policy has been readopted by the government; many industries are launching new promotional techniques; current construction is at an all-time high; military spending is still in the upper billions, and nearly 54 percent of all non-farm families in the U.S. own their own homes, making wholesale evictions a memory of the grim past.

However, the union's leaders are not as optimistic as the government experts. Joblessness is hitting their people in concentrated areas such as Detroit. More than half the jobless will come from union ranks.

So you can expect that the labor chiefs, in addition to attempting to needle the government into swifter unleashing of public works funds, will fight for a shorter work week at the same pay.

THEY WANT this so their people will be able to share the work. The CIO Oil Workers Union, for example, plans, to ask for a 36-hour week.

More and more unions will ask employers to give them a greater say in preparing production schedules so they can spread available jobs among their members.

Still other unions will fight for a guaranteed weekly wage. That is a full week's payment if a man is called in to work more than two and a half days a week.

Whichever way you look at it, there seems to be no doubt that there will be far and away enough millions working to bolster our economy and help the unlucky 3,500,000 jobless over the hump this year.

Asking for Trouble

By Laura Hobson

I'll wager a brand new aluminum frying-pan against some Bolivian tin hat despite the last minute switch to "parental blessings," Don Antenor Patino laid up a lot of future heartache for himself by trying to keep his young daughter from marrying her young English swain.

HOBSON

For even though everybody kissed and made up after Papa Patino's official court orders and private detectives, he obviously operated all along on the theory that "Papa Knows Best."

This is the type of parent who winds up sooner or later feeling pretty sorry for himself and learnedly spouting "how sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child," as if he were "King Lear" himself.

WHETHER or not 20-year-old Maria Isabella really is too young to marry, her millionaire father still was pacticing one of the most dangerous games of interference any father or mother can play.

My private name for that game is, "Parents' Penny Ante," because each time the chips go down, the risk seems small, but over the years the total lost can tot up to quite a hideous sum.

To advise our children, to counsel, to talk things over in the attempt to bring up sensible and mature young men and women—these are the jobs and joys of parenthood.

But to try to take the reins for too long a stretch, to issue commands instead of suggestions — that's about the surest way to arrange for broken families and a lonely old age, with your children paying duty visits twice a year on Thanksgiving and Christmas Day.

IF YOU DOUBT it, ask any wise doctor or psychologist, any experienced minister or rabbi or priest.

The mother who tells a child, "Don't play with Molly—she's not nice enough for you," the father who throws a fit when his boy doesn't want to go into business with him, the folks who forever say, "I never even thought of that when I was your age"—these managing fathers and mothers are acting like drill sergeants, instead of good sane parents.

Do child psychologists, then, disapprove of all parental control? Of course not. They don't even object to an occasional burst of temper and a spanking at the moment of seeing red.

In fact, they say that parents who always act like angels with little tin wings, are doing their youngsters no favor at all, for life isn't run by angels with little tin wings, and to bring up a child to expect any such malarkey is no preparation for reality.

BUT IT SEEMS most authorities agree that apart from the occasional family row, the best-adjusted children come from those happy homes where mother and father are relaxed and reasonable people themselves.

And reasonable people don't want to choke their small fry with tough edicts and rules, nor strangle them with apron strings. What's more, apron strings can be either masculine or feminine, and if you don't believe that, you needn't go all the way to Bolivia's tin mines for your research.

You could just look around at some of the parents you know—especially at the ones who're right in there pitching on just about every issue in their children's lives.

And after you look, you might just for fun, glance at that inward mirror which is yourself.

Perjury Case Ready for Jury In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — A jury in U.S. District Court was expected to begin its deliberations today in the trial of E. Melvin Hupman, Dayton labor leader who is charged with having committed perjury when he signed a non-Communist affidavit.

Judge John H. Druffel was hopeful he would be able to turn the case over to the jury by noon. Whether that could be done, however, depended largely on a decision by defense attorneys as to whether they would call any more witnesses.

The only defense witnesses heard thus far have been five character witnesses for Hupman who were called yesterday.

Marshal Perlin of New York, heading the defense staff, said even if any others are called today he could complete his case within an hour.

Judge Druffel, turning down vigorous protests by Perlin, ruled yesterday that closing arguments should be limited to one hour on each side. Perlin asked for three hours in which to argue the case but the judge said tersely:

"You get one hour."

Joseph C. Bullock, special assistant U.S. district attorney, told Judge Druffel he was agreeable to the one hour limitation and added that he doubted if the government even would use all of that time.

The judge also had before him a request by Perlin to be allowed to argue motions for a directed verdict of acquittal, dismissal of the indictment and a striking out of testimony and evidence. Judge Druffel overruled all of the motions but said he would retain the right to re-consider them if necessary in view of Perlin's request for arguments on them.

Burke Predicts President To Need Help of Democrats

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ohio's new senator, who says he likes President Eisenhower's program, predicts the administration will have trouble getting it approved without support from Democrats.

Thomas A. Burke, former Democrat mayor of Cleveland who was sworn in last week to succeed the late Republican Robert A. Taft, told a National Defense Transportation Assn. meeting:

"I thought the President's program was a good one. But he is going to have trouble putting it through—especially his farm program—without Democratic support."

After the President outlined his program in a State of the Union speech, "most of the criticism" came from the Eisenhower's "own party," Burke said.

"Some of the Republicans," Burke continued, "called him a blankety-blank New Dealer."

Other parts of the program with which the President will have trouble are housing and taxes, the senator added.

Burke, who called himself the "low man on the Senate totem pole," said he was on a nine-man committee which runs the city affirs of Washington.

"I am one ninth of a mayor," kidded the former Ohio mayor.

Burke also said he was attempting to get a guided missile unit assigned to guard Cleveland.

VISIT STEEL PLANT

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Benjamin Fairless, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., and David J. McDonald, president of the CIO United Steelworkers, visited U.S. Steel's small plant here yesterday. The two are touring various plants in a program for improving company-union relations.

Kiwanis Club Cites Members For Attendance

Attendance tabs were awarded to 13 members for perfect attendance ranging from one to 15 years at the Marion Kiwanis Club weekly luncheon meeting Thursday at Hotel Harding.

Also for the program, a movie, "The American Road," developed by the Ford Motor Co., was shown.

Receiving attendance tabs were Harry L. Dowler, 15 years; John Clark, 12 years; G. C. McCreight, 11 years; Charles Bloomingdale, 10 years; Ralph Carhart, 9 years; Rev. M. E. Hollensen, 6 years; Edwin C. Mitchell, 5 years; Paul Huffman, 3 years; Harold Young, Cline Welch, Richard Myers, John Lawrence and George Lane, one year.

The film dealt with transportation, from its beginning in the horse and buggy days and into the era when Henry Ford made the first motorized vehicle. It concerned the building and development of automobiles when with the increase in production the assembly line method was adopted. The film also gave highlights of Henry Ford's life.

Introduced as a new member was Marvin Ludwig, youth director of the YMCA.

Four Junior Kiwanians, two from Harding High School and two from St. Mary High School, also were introduced. They include William Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lyons of 618 Mt. Vernon Ave., and Jack O'Keeffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Keeffe of 235 Thew Ave., from St. Mary, and Robert Knachel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knachel of 222 S. Grand Ave., and Robert Hamor, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hamor of 589 King Ave., from Harding.

A guest of the club was Chet Dalzell of Decatur, Ind.

Officers Installed By Marion Lodge

Henry H. Rawlins, district deputy grand master, was the installing officer at a recent meeting of Kosciusko Lodge No. 58, IOOF, in the Odd Fellows Hall. He was assisted by A. D. Wells, district deputy grand marshal, R. G. Williamson, district deputy grand warden, Philip Gorenflo, district deputy grand secretary, E. G. Pace, district deputy grand treasurer and Dana R. Carpenter, district deputy grand sentinel.

Elective officers installed were: C. I. Smithson, noble grand; E. G. Pace, vice grand; H. B. Prior, recording secretary; L. F. Bailer, financial secretary; Tom Popoff, treasurer. Appointive officers installed were: C. G. Roecker, right supporter to vice grand; Philip Gorenflo, left supporter to vice grand; Dana R. Carpenter, warden; Charles Popoff, conductor; A. D. Wells, chaplain; Henry H. Rawlins, right supporter to noble grand; Ed Gorenflo, left supporter to noble grand; J. G. Cunningham, inside guardian; C. E. Primmer, outside guardian; Tom Popoff, right scene supporter; Carl H. Bryant, left scene supporter.

A social hour and refreshments followed the business session.

Continued Increase Seen In Municipal Court Cases

Since the court gained county-wide jurisdiction beginning in January, 1952, both the number of cases and total receipts have doubled. Today's business is more than five times greater than in the court's first year of operation in 1927.

During 1953, there were 3,653 criminal cases tried with total receipts of $114,542. In 1927, the total receipts were $17,671 and in 1951 they were $60,226.

The number of cases jumped from 1,953 during 1951 to 3,291 two years ago and climbed another 400 cases last year.

All this has meant an increased work load for Municipal Court employes including Judge W. Dexter Hazen. Deploring inadequacy of court facilities to properly handle the heavier docket, he said, "Here we are still struggling along with the same courtroom and offices first used more than 25 years ago even though we have nearly five times as much work."

Several times in recent weeks, particularly after the holidays, the courtroom has been filled to overflowing with persons charged with various offenses, he said. Once or twice a few have had to stand during the court proceedings, even though temporary seats were installed in every available space in the courtroom.

"Not only is this inconvenient for all involved but it detracts from the dignity of the court," he said.

In addition to criminal cases, the court also hears civil cases up to $2,000 valuation. Last year there were 628 such cases tried along with 269 garnishments handled by the court.

Disbursements of money collected from fines, costs, and bond forfeitures in the criminal division last year amounted to $77,009, according to the annual report. Of this, $56,606 went to the city general fund, $5,970 to the Marion County treasury, $10,873 to the state treasury as its half share of money collected in state highway patrol cases, $509 to the Marion County sheriff's office for mileage and turn-key fees, $3,000 to the Law Library Fund, and $50 to the Pure Food and Drug Division of the State Health Department.

Another $2,610 was paid to the city general fund from money collected in civil cases during the year.

This adds up to an "operating profit" of some $52,000 for the court last year. Total cost of court opertaion was $24,518 including salaries of the judge, clerk, bailiff, assistant judge, assistant clerk, and assistant bailiff, and incidentals, stationery and printing. There are no other costs of court operation.

Actual cost to the city was $18,970. This is because the city pays only three-fifths of the court's operating costs. The other two-fifths of these salaries are paid by the county.

Last fall, the Marion County Bar Association presented a plan to City Council calling for remodeling and enlarging of Municipal Court facilities. This plan was indefinitely postponed when Mayor Harold F. Robinson proposed consideration be given the possibility of a new city hall to include adequate courtroom facilities.

Mayor Robinson suggested possibly converting City Hospital to a city hall after it is vacated or the construction of a new city hall on the city-owned parking lot on W. Church St. Various objections were raised to these plans and no further action has been taken on them.

AEC Takes Atom Matters Seriously, Shriners Discover

FARMINGTON, N. M. — Local Shriners recently wired President Eisenhower jokingly offering use of the Shrine clubhouse as a storehouse for A-bombs "in exchange for one small atomic charge to use in our program for the ensuing year."

Back came a copy of the tongue-in-cheek wire with the notation: "Your wire respectuflly acknowledged; will refer proper authorities and advise. Hobson, White House press staff."

Then came a letter over the signature of AEC Chairman Lewis Strauss. It read:

"The AEC has sufficient available storage space to handle the present supply of fissionable material; furthermore the security procedure that we must follow makes it impossible for us to store such materials with private organizations. We regret we cannot honor your request."

Sales Ad Club Plans Campaign To Promote 'Mothers' March'

The Marion Sales Ad Club which will be in charge of publicity for the "Mothers' March on Polio" Jan. 28, has planned many special events to focus attention on the fund-raising campaign, Robert Kries, publicity chairman reported today.

The Mothers' March will climax the March of Dimes campaign, which is held annually in January to raise money for the treatment of infantile paralysis.

In addition to publicizing the campaign, club members will arrange for noise making the night of the porchlight drive. They will ask churches to ring bells, factories to blow whistles and police and firemen to sound sirens to signal the start of the one-hour drive throughout the county.

The club will also be responsible for contacts with the Engineer Depot and the fire chief to arrange to have searchlights on during the March period (7-8 p.m. on the 28th) Club members will contact all merchants in an effort to have them devote a portion of their advertising to announcements of the Mothers' March, and will post and distribute posters and stickers throughout the entire county. The group is now preparing a handbill which explains the purpose of the march and how all county residents can cooperate by turning on a light. Distribution of this material will be through the schools, industry and super markets.

The Mothers' March is a vital and climaxing activity of this year's March of Dimes campaign. On this night every family in Marion County will be asked to turn on their porchlights or have a lighted candle in the window between 7 and 8 p.m. to indicate their desire to contribute. Apartment dwellers can indicate their desire to give by tieing a shoe, towel or handkerchief to the doorknob.

Marching mothers will stop at each house at which there is a signal.

"During the 60 minutes in which the mothers of the county contact the porch-lighted houses," said Kries, "our county will again have a chance to prove that when it comes to protecting the health of its young citizens, our people will not be found wanting. So please give, and give generously.

Concert Will Be Given By Orchestra of OWU

DELAWARE — The sixty piece Ohio Wesleyan Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Romine Hamilton, will present its annual winter concert, Sunday night, Jan. 17 at 8:15 in Gray Chapel.

Robert Hladky, teacher of cello at Ohio Wesleyan University, will be the soloist, playing the Haydn Cello Concerto.

Tired of Quiet Life

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Tired of the quiet life, a 4-year old boy toddled into the corridor of an apartment house and:

Filled a dozen mailboxes with dirt, ripped up letters and switched all the others.

Tipped over a garbage can and broke milk bottles.

"I can't believe he did all this," his mother told police.

In any kind of weather, Ice Cream can be your best--and most easily prepared--treat!

Keep a half-gallon of Borden's handy at home!

Waffles with Ice Cream
Serve a dip of vanilla ice cream atop a hot waffle . . . and add jam or fresh-frozen fruit if you like. Wonderful both for breakfast and for midnight lunches! Just different enough to be exciting.

Ice Cream Snowball
Form ice cream into balls (easy if you have a dipper) and roll in shredded coconut. Put two tablespoons of chocolate sauce in a small dish. Set the coconut-ice cream ball in the center. This one is always a favorite at parties!

There's no closed season on these refreshing drinks!
Good any time of year is the Strawberry-Orange Frosted, shown at the right. For each serving, use two big scoops of Strawberry Ice Cream (or vanilla if you prefer) and one cup of fresh or frozen orange juice. Blend with egg beater or mixer. Serve in a tall glass with an orange slice. And as for sodas, the possibilities are endless. Use vanilla ice cream, your favorite fruit or chocolate syrup, and fill the glass with sparkling water. Or, even simpler, just ice cream and your favorite soft drink. You'll find teen-agers really go for sodas "made at home."

Chicago Baby Dies, Medical Help Rejected

Young Couple Refuse To Permit Transfusion On Religious Grounds

CHICAGO (AP) — An 8-day-old boy died early Thursday, several hours after his young parents had refused on religious grounds to permit doctors to give him a blood transfusion.

The parents had been summoned into Family Court today on a petition to declare them unfit parents and make their infant a ward of the court.

The parents, Thomas Grzyb, 20, and his wife Barbara, 18, yesterday refused to sign a waiver which would have permitted an immediate Family Court hearing on the question of legally forcing a transfusion. Both are members of the Jehovah's Witnesses religious sect.

The case was brought to the court's attention by Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, Board of Health president, after he was informed of the child's condition by officials at St. Anthony's Hospital and the baby's physician, Dr. Isadore Lerner.

Dr. Lerner said the couple's son, Thomas Jr., had needed a transfusion since birth. He said last night the baby had been in a state of shock since an operation for an abdominal obstruction Tuesday.

"The baby is getting weaker by the minute," Dr. Lerner said last night. "I almost got on my knees begging the parents to allow a blood transfusion. The best we are doing now is with transfusions of glucose."

But the baby died early today at the hospital. The parents were not there, an official said.

"If the baby dies, that is God's will," the young mother had said as she and her husband refused to allow the transfusion. "I have no fear. The blood won't make any difference. I am not going to hand him over to the court until I have to. The judge doesn't care what's in the Bible."

Sister Mary Michael of the hospital's pediatric section said she had told the young couple yesterday their baby's life depended on a blood transfusion. She added:

"But the father told me, 'Our belief won't allow it. It's better to have a dead baby without the blood than a living baby with the transfusion.'"

The parents had contended the injection of blood into the veins is the same as eating blood, which they claim is forbidden by the Bible.

Kilmer's Cousin Doesn't Share Liking for Trees

DENVER (AP) — The man from the telephone company was adamant: that tree on Jim Harpster's property had to be destroyed.

It was interfering with telephone and power lines. Besides, it wasn't a pretty tree at all. Harpster finally agreed. That's when the man bent on removal of the ugly tree said thanks and handed over his business card.

His name: Joyce Kilmer. He's a fourth cousin of the World War I poet who died soon after writing a memorable tribute — "Trees."

NO JAIL NEEDED

Marion County Fair Dates Set

Attractions Booked At Columbus Meeting

The Marion County Fair will be held Aug. 21 through Aug. 26, it was announced today after return of county fair board members from the State Fair Managers Convention in Columbus Wednesday and Thursday.

Attractions for the fair were booked at the meeting, held in the Deshler-Hilton Hotel.

In the group were Don Clements, president, Clifford Campbell, secretary, Clyde Hinamon, executive board member, Frank Foster, superintendent of the speed division and executive board member, Dr. J. G. McNamara, member of the speed committee, William H. Guy Sr., executive board member, and Ernest Fogle, Paul Augenstein, Gomer Johnson, S. P. Lauer Sr., Edward Bender, Joe Vogel and Earl Seckel.

Gooding Amusement Co. games and rides were again secured by the local board. Special events for the fair will include harness racing three nights, Aug. 21-23-24; public church service in the grandstand on Sunday morning; WLW radio and television stars in Sunday afternoon and evening shows; Junior Fair on Wednesday; tractor pulling contest on Thursday.

On Thursday night a thrill show has been arranged which will be an international contest between the Canadian Aces, Dick Roger's Motor Maniacs, and Ward Beam's Dare Devils. Winners will be selected by the applause of the audience.

Programs for Monday and Tuesday afternoons have not been definitely planned, but the board hopes to arrange home talent events.

Also this year, mule sulky races will be held each night of harness racing.

Under natural conditions, coffee plants grow to a height of 18 to 20 feet.

Paulding Woman Heads Mother's March on Polio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Mervin Day of Paulding, 73, mother of seven and grandmother of nine, today was named honorary chairman of the Ohio Mothers March on Polio scheduled Jan. 28.

The designation was made by Richard L. Kroesen, Cleveland, state chairman of the March of Dimes. Mrs. Day has been active in the campaign the last two years.

Kroesen said an estimated 100,000 Ohio women will take part in the fund-raising drive for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc.

Until the end of the 17th Century poor people in England were buried without coffins, wrapped in cloth or even merely covered with hay and flowers.

Look at the EGGS We've Laid!

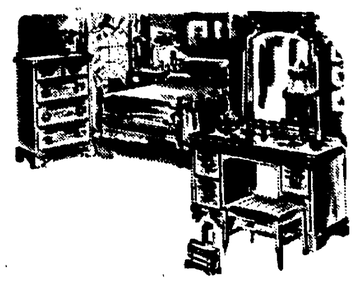
Occasionally, we just have to clean house! Call 'em what you will, but there's a lot of darned good furniture in the stuff we ridicule! Some of it's new, some shopworn, some a little marked! Even a few used items! But it's all got a lot of good, yet, and you'll be plenty smart to spend a few minutes looking it over! Better come down town soon!

BATCH MAPLE AND BIRCH JUVENILE COSTUMERS. At $7.50 they don't hatch so well, but at $3.95, well, they ought to get going! Add one in the hall for tiny tot visitors! Add another one in the children's room! And in no time at all, you'll have more "chicks" about the house than you may realize.

THAYER DOUBLE DROP SIDE BIRCH CRIB. Supposed to be deluxe style and practically irresistible! Another one of our "deluxe" eggs! You may be able to use it, though! Especially if you want to disregard the stylish appointments with which it is generously endowed! It has been priced a $48.50, but we're determined to sacrifice it for $36.75, so better hurry! The $11.75 you save will buy a lot of beans for the eaters in your family!

MAPLE YOUTH BED COMPLETE WITH SEALY INNERSPRING MATTRESS. Better hurry if you expect to get one of these! When the boss sees this ad, yours truly might as well make application for a somewhat inferior position elsewhere 'cause he sure 'nough is a goin' to lower the boom! Now where in the world are you goin' to beat this $49.50 combination at our REGULAR price, leave alone the reduced price of $39.95! Why the $9.55 you save will buy a year's supply of the Saturday Evening Post! Your readin' for a year for the savings you effect!

BOUDOIR CAPRICES!



MAHOGANY BEDROOM SUITE. Think this came from Dixie! They should send it back to Dixie! Lots of things Dixie's got, we want, but this isn't one of 'em! We're kickin' 90 bucks off the regular price of $279.50! So tomorrow you buy it for $189.50! Includes vanity and chair, chest-on-chest and full size bed! And, you know, the 90 bucks you save will buy a lot of bedding, too!

DOUBLE DRESSER MAPLE BEDROOM. The designer isn't to blame! But we know who is . . . and if this doesn't go out soon, we know of a buyer who will! You should see the frills on the different pieces . . .the lace on mother's Sunday petticoat becomes rather insignificant by comparison! It hasn't been sensational at $209.50! But when you see the unusual bookcase-headboard bed and the massive pieces, maybe you'll overlook the "gingerbread" . . . especially when you save $50 . . .'Cause it's only $159.50 now!

WALNUT BEDROOM SUITE. Was $164.50, now $139.50! Save a cool $25! What an easy way to make a living (you, we mean)! This suite includes a roomy double dresser with mirror, chest of drawers and full size panel bed! Sure and it's a real buy! Good enough for your own bedroom, the children's room or the spare room! Well! What are you waitin' for! It's a "bad egg" for us, a $25 nugget for you!

DUAL PURPOSE GIMMICKS!

CHOICE STUDIO DIVANS. Citron or tan figured fabrics! Were to $70! Marked down to $49.50! Save a $20 bill, plus a 50 cent piece! Put the $20 bill in your savings account and the 50 cents in the piggy bank! Sure took an unusual hen to lay such unusual "eggs"! These are just ducky for "pop" to "flop" when he comes in all dusty (or just plain dirty) and tired! Not too large, not too small (Page Miss Goldi Locks)! Lots of places you can hide these (and "pop" too, incidentally)!

INNERSPRING STUDIO COUCH. This is a couch! That's just what the man said! So we priced it at $97.50! Nice red or green shades with Duran plastic arms to match! These just couldn't miss hatching! But they did! If your idea of furnishings decor is in the Grand Rapids manner, don't aggravate yourself by even bothering to see these! But if you can use dual-purpose furniture to any advantage, and the style is unimportant, then your "Plymouth Rock" dream has come true! We will welcome you to the "nest" if you hurry down!

KROEHLER DESK-VANITY AND BENCH. At $121, no one wanted to give it house room! But at $79 it'll have a home in a hurry! Lovely cherry, if you like cherry! Slightly shopworn, but you wouldn't know it, and, if we kept our big mouth shut, you'd never have even guessed it!

2ND FLOOR GUILD GALLERIES. Sure! They've laid 'em, too! And, my friend, these are super-deluxe eggs! Mark-downs are practically one-half on a lot of these! Believe you us, our heart isn't in this at all! We could gnash a lot of uppers and lowers just contemplating the sacrifices made here! Style conscious buyers will discover their "bonanza" here! If you're one who has never been "lucky" ere this, here's your chance to hit the jackpot like never before! It may be your "Chance of a lifetime"!

ILLUMINATED PICTURES. They are Lightolier made! Guaranteed not to furnish reading illumination! But there'll be enough light to throw in bold relief any and all minor flaws as exist on your walls or ceilings (such as cracks, seams, soil, cobwebs, et cetera)! At $42.50 they smell . . .at $21.25 they're attractive! See 'em before you decide to question their value at $21.25.

PICTURE MIRRORS. They're not such good mirrors, but you should see the pictures! Birds, flowers, and what have you! Were $9.95! Now $5.99! Store 'em away with your other antiques until you redecorate!

Announcing The New Packard CLIPPER

The new Packard CLIPPER Panama Hardtop! Sportiest car in the new CLIPPER line.

See the 1954 Packard line at your dealer's beginning Friday, January 15th.

America's Newest Medium-Priced Car!

Luxury at a lot less...because Packard builds it

A year ago the Packard CLIPPER was introduced as America's newest medium-priced car.

■ And men who know were quick to say: "That's a lot of car for the money!"

■ And it was a lot of car for the money. And it is a lot of car for the money. Because Packard builds it.

So the news spread!

■ And in 1954 the new CLIPPER brings you fine-car luxuries, fine-car power, fine-car ride . . . (the high-price features everybody wants) . . . and yet at a popular, medium price!

■ We have built a finer car for '54 because experience in '53 proved that there are many thousands of Americans who want a true luxury car in the medium-price range.

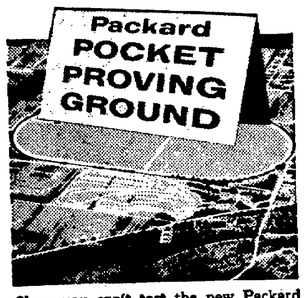
■ Most cars in the medium-price field are simply big brothers of smaller cars made by the same company. These cars may offer the modern gadgets and the smooth look of the big car, but in most cases their basic engineering is still influenced by small-car engineering.

"Packard-built" makes the difference

■ No feature or claim will ever give you a more powerful reason for buying a CLIPPER than the name Packard.

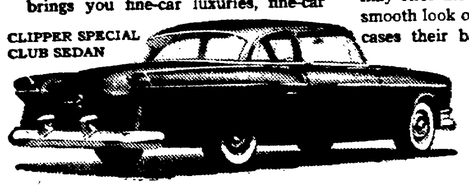
■ You'll find the reason when you take command of a Packard CLIPPER and put it through its paces over a road of your own choosing. Make that date with "Packard-built quality at a popular, medium price" very soon . . . won't you?

■ You'll get luxury for a lot less in a Packard CLIPPER.



Since you can't test the new Packard CLIPPER at the famous Packard Proving Ground, get the story, fact by fact, on the pocket proving ground at your dealer's. But don't stop there! For the real thrill, drive a CLIPPER. N-130C

CLIPPER SPECIAL CLUB SEDAN



Did you know you can buy a Packard CLIPPER for as little as $2572 DELIVERED IN MARION

. . . Plus state and local taxes, if any, for Clipper Special Club Sedan (illustrated at left). Optional equipment, including white sidewall tires, extra. Prices may vary slightly in nearby communities due to shipping charges.

WATCH OUT!

Browning looks like this when he's ready for villain role.

DO YOU REMEMBER the worst nightmare you ever had? Chances are you'll relive it if you see Hollywood's latest creation in its album of screen monsters—the "gill man," half-fish and half-man. The studio's makeup department moulded a plaster head to cover Ricou Browning, who plays the monster, and fitted him with a lizard-like suit. The monster lives in a tank. Kids will love (?) him.

The monster roams around in his lair, a 20-foot-deep tank.

WHAT DOES the "typical" American young couple look like? John and Betty Marsch of Kansas City, Mo., are the choice of a movie studio to play such roles in European film.

Polio Victim Dies in Forest

Miss Norma Baker Rites Slated Saturday

FOREST—After a battle of nearly a year and a half against polio and complications, a 24-year-old woman of the Forest community, Miss Norma Jeanne Baker, died Wednesday night at home. She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Baker of two miles east of Forest on Route 53, in Wyandot County, and her parents had planned to take her to Warm Springs, Ga., for treatment when she was able to be released from her iron lung and rocking bed. A slight improvement in her condition had been noted recently. It is believed death resulted from heart attack.

Miss Baker was stricken ill in August, 1952, while attending Methodist Youth Fellowship Institute sessions at Lakeside. She was taken on returning home to Children's Hospital in Columbus where she remained until last September. Her parents had closed their farm home to be with her in Columbus. She had been in an iron lung nine months.

Born March 16, 1929, she was the daughter of Floyd B. and Fanny Taylor Baker. Graduated from Forest High School in 1947, she attended Ohio State University and took nurse's training at University Hospital. She was a member of the Forest Methodist Church.

Her parents are her only close survivors.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. in the Forest Methodist Church. Rev. Grover Reed will officiate. Burial will be in Hueston Cemetery at Forest. Friends may call at the Shields Funeral Home in Forest until 1 p.m. Saturday.

Attend Ferrall Funeral

Relatives from Marion and from Newark and relatives and friends from throughout the rural area attended funeral services in Bucyrus Wednesday afternoon for Gurney J. Ferrall, Bucyrus barber and beauty parlor operator whose death occurred Sunday in University Hospital in Columbus. He was the father of Mrs. James Conley of Marion, Mrs. Edith Nash of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. George Kildow of Forest. His eight grandchildren include sons of Mrs. Conley who are in service, Pvt. Don G. Frizzell of Camp Gordon, Ga., and Cpl. Jack M. Frizzell of San Diego, Calif.

CLEARED CONSCIENCE

Boys Knock Down Excavation Lamps

Malicious destruction of some red lanterns used to warn of an excavation by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. along Bellefontaine Ave. was reported to police last night.

Mrs. R. P. Wagner of 426 Bellefontaine Ave. called police and reported four young boys had knocked the lanterns down as they walked along the street. Police notified Ralph Kailber of the Gas Co. and he later reported that 12 of the lanterns knocked down were broken.

The excavation was made just east of Blaine Ave. on Bellefontaine Ave. to enable company crews to work on gas lines. The lanterns were placed to warn persons walking along the sidewalks of the danger. Police are investigating.

Ohio Fuel Gas Co. Rate Hike Okayed by PUCO

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state utilities commission today authorized the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. to raise gas rates charged 540 rural customers in 11 counties.

The new rates will be in line with those charged residents of nearby incorporated communities. The customers live in these counties:

Athens, Gallia, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Meigs, Morgan, Pickaway, Ross, Vinton and Washington.

Director of State Education Assoc. Talks to PTA Unit

Edward L. Hoon, of Columbus, director of field service in the Ohio Educational Association, was a guest speaker at a meeting of the George Washington PTA Tuesday night in the school auditorium. His subject was "Moving Forward in Education."

Mrs. W. A. Dallas conducted the devotions, reading the 121st Psalm. The service closed with prayer. Two piano numbers were by Ted Pollock of Harding High School. Business included a letter from Mrs. Robert McCombs, president of the City PTA Council, asking the group's support in the scholarship fund, and a report of the City Council meeting by the school representative, Mrs. Garland Winters. Richard Lister, budget chairman, announced Feb. 19 as the date for the "Washington Whirligig", fun night, and asked all members to cooperate in making the event a success.

In his talk Mr. Hoon pointed out that malnutrition in education is the same as body malnutrition and stated it leaves a lasting effect. He listed the following as necessities in "moving forward in education"; get and maintain the best teachers available; interest high school students in the teaching profession. For the 7,000 teachers needed, only between 2,200 and 2,400 are graduated each year, he stated. "We must develop individual and group ability," he said, and added that it is paticularly the responsibility of the Ohio PTA to assist all children in moving forward in education.

Resigns Coaching Post

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Hubert (Hub) Ulrich, football end coach, scout and head baseball coach at the University of Kansas, has turned in his resignation to A. C. Lonborg, athletic director.

Ulrich said he is leaving to accept a job in the sales division of the Skelly Oil Co.

Week's Action in Congress

Highlights of Developments in Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — The warm reception given to President Eisenhower's social security proposals by both Democratic and Republican lawmakers indicates smooth passage through Congress.

The President yesterday recommended a six-point program, including extension of benefits to another 10½ million people, bigger monthly payments and other liberalizations.

St. Lawrence—A possible filibuster confronts the Senate as Sen. John Marshall Butler (R-Md) sets himself to speak "at great length" against the proposed St. Lawrence seaway project.

Meanwhile, Senate backers of legislation to authorize U. S. participation with Canada in building the seaway claim growing strength and ultimate victory. The issue cuts across party lines.

Salaries—A special commission set up by Congress recommends that senators and House members vote themselves a $12,500-a-year pay raise. They now get $15,000 a year. The commission, reporting to President Eisenhower, also urges substantial salary boosts for federal judges.

House program—Speaker Martin and Republican committee chairmen line up legislative program for the House, which so far this session has been marking time.

Information—A Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee questions Theodore C. Streibert, head of the new U. S. Information Agency, about how the government's overseas information-propaganda program has been running.

Air academy—The House Armed Services Committee may approve establishmet of a separate academy to prepare professional officers for the Air Force.

Slayer of Ohio Woman Object Of Wide Hunt

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)— The search for Otto A. Loel, 47-year-old Syracuse, N. Y., man charged with the brutal knife slaying of his 31-year-old traveling companion in a tourist court here Sunday night stretched from New York to Oregon today.

But Loel continued to elude the net.

Officers found the scantily-clad body of Mrs. Elizabeth Jeanne Henderson, pretty Compton, Calif., housewife and mother, in the motel Wednesday. She had been dead since Sunday.

Authorities said her death was the work of a "maniac." They said Mrs. Henderson probably was tortured several days before she was stabbed repeatedly and beaten to death.

At Roseburg, Ore., Mrs. Loel told state police she had no idea where her husband was. She said the last she had heard from him was a telephone call Jan. 6.

Loel and Mrs. Henderson were driving eastward together on a share-the-expense basis. She intended to visit her mother, Mrs. Helen Cole, at Newark, Ohio. Loel was reportedly en route to Syracuse.

Mrs. Henderson's body was found by the tourist court manager after Loel paid rent on the room until Tuesday, then disappeared. The manager entered the room and found the body stuffed under the bed, her head on a blood-soaked pillow.

Assembly May End Special Session Today

Political Developments Take Play Away From Legislative Proposals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Legislature puts the last formal touch today to a four-day special session whose side issues made more headlines than the issues before it.

Legislative officials prepared to sign two legislative acts and send them to Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

The acts sets in motion the half-billion-dollar highway bond issue approved by the voters last November. Senate and House completed action on the two measures yesterday, then turned over the last formalities to a skeleton session today.

But it was of turnpikes and politics that legislators thought most in their extraordinary session—the first ever held under the mandate of a constitutional amendment. It was in the form of a constitutional amendment that the highway bond issue was presented to voters.

It was a foregone conclusion when members of the 100th General Assembly reached Columbus Monday that the two bills—one to implement the big bond issue, the other to authorize issuance of 82 million dollars' worth of bonds—would be approved.

There had been plenty of previous evidence they would be asked to say yes or no—informally—to the question of whether the state controlling board should lend the Ohio Turnpike Commission $135,000 for preliminary survey of a north-south turnpike route.

But none of the legislators was prepared for the political shocker: House Speaker William Saxbe's announcement he will challenge U.S. Rep. George Bender of Cleveland for the Republican senatorial nomination.

Saxbe's unexpected announcement came almost simultaneously with the word that State Auditor James A. Rhodes had decided to heed the appeals of his supporters — including the Republican State Central and Executive Committee—and make the race for governor against Democratic Gov. Lausche, who seeks a fifth term.

Earlier events had pretty well indicated Rhodes' move, but not Saxbe's.

The state GOP committee had endorsed Bender, veteran congressman, to succeed the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, and State GOP Chairman Ray C. Bliss of Akron warned Saxbe the Republican organization would go all-out to nominate and elect Bender.

But Saxbe ignored the warning and timed his announcement to coincide with Rhodes'. The House speaker had told Rhodes weeks ago he would run for governor if the auditor didn't.

Saxbe's announcement of senatorial candidacy before a House Republican caucus drew cheers and—more important—offers of help in circulating petitions.

Legislators gave their representatives on the state controlling board the go-ahead on the question of releasing funds to finance a survey of a north-south turnpike—from Cincinnati on the southwest to Conneaut in the northeast—with Columbus-Toledo and Columbus-Youngstown spurs added for good measure.

Senate Finance Committee Chairman Tom V. Moorehead (R-Muskingum) and his house counterpart, J. Frank McClure (R-Ashland), had refused to release funds until they got the overwhelming backing of the Legislature. The surveys will determine if there is enough traffic on the proposed turnpike routes to pay off construction bonds. The rough estimate of the Cincinnati-Conneaut turnpike cost is 400 million dollars.

Bible Words to Live by

MATTHEW 28:19-20 — "Go.....and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the ages."

* * *

His promise is: He is to be by our side to rebuke, to lead, to comfort, to encourage, to assure final victory.

The reward is collectible only by faithful executors of this will. That reward is final success because of His presence "by the side of," or "along with the worker, and of His participation in the assigned responsibilities.

He will be by our side to rebuke our sinfulness, for Light always rebukes darkness. How uncomfortable we feel in the presence of the saintly.

He is with us to lead us. "He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake."

He is with us to comfort us. "Yea, though I walk through the valley of deep shadows, Thou art with me, Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me" —give me strength.

When a farm boy, I went with my father across a small river to see another farmer. We were detained: the hour was late afternoon: we needed to save time. Instead of returning by the way of the bridge, we crossed on a submerged ledge of rock only a few feet wide. Deep water was immediately on both sides. Father rode his horse through first, then turned and faced me, saying, "Son, keep your eye on me and come straight."

"He has been there before you and He knows the way through."

"I will be by your side always — even until all the days of the eternities are completed."

Woman Uses Her Umbrella To Rout Atlanta Assailant

ATLANTA (AP)—A middle - aged woman armed only with an umbrella beat off a six-foot, 250-pound man who was trying to force a young housewife into his truck yesterday.

Patrolman A. L. Posey said the 16-year-old housewife was returning home from a grocery store when the man parked his pickup truck and asked her to get inside.

When she refused, the man leaped out of the truck, grabbed her and tried to force her inside, the policeman said. She screamed for help.

An unidentified woman standing at a bus stop rushed up, jabbed the man in the chest with her umbrella and then beat him over the head with it. The man ran back to his truck and drove away.

The Italian government estimates that it will require 75 years' more work to complete the excavation of Pompeii.

In Memory

Of my beloved mom, Lulu Holtsberry who peacefully slipped away Jan. 15, 1942.

Someone I love comes back to me
With every gentle face I see;
Beneath each wave of soft brown hair
I seem to see my mother there.
With every kindly grace and word,
It seems as if I must have heard
Her speak, and felt her tender gaze
With all the love of olden days.
And I am moved to take her hand
And tell her now I understand
How tired she grew beneath the strain
Of feeling very loved, one's pain,
No further burdens could she bear;
The promise of that land more fair
Alone could tempt her from her child;
And now, if I could keep her here,
No sacrifice could be too dear.
No tempered winds for her too mild.
I think if I could feel her touch
Once more, it would not matter much
How sunny or how dark the day.

Her daughter,
Mrs. Ruth Vaughn.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—A new recovery high was reached today by the stock market in its fourth straight advance.

Prices were up at the best between 1 and 2 points. Losses were small.

Motors, steels, and the railroads were prime participants in the move ahead, but all divisions enjoyed the benefits of the rise.

Among higher stocks were New York Central, General Electric, American Tobacco, U.S. Steel, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, National Distillers, and Radio Corp.

November Grid Games At OSU To Start at 1:30

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University announced today it plans to start its November home football games this year at 1:30 p.m. instead of the traditional 2 p.m.

It will follow a practice in other Big Ten schools, and is aimed at not only avoiding any threat of darkness on bad days but will permit out-of-town fans to get a start on their home trip before darkness.

Only two games will be affected this year, the Pittsburgh game Nov. 6 and the Michigan game Nov. 20. Other home games in September and October will start at 2 p.m.

Barons Swamped as Troy Wins First Decision 10-6

Loss Drops Marion Team Into Third Place Deadlock

Troy's Bruins swamped the Marion Barons 10-6 in a free-scoring International Hockey League game in Troy's Hobart Arena Thursday night to crack the locals' jinx over Troy. It marked Troy's initial win over the Barons after four straight losses.

Marion's loss dropped it into a third-place tie with Troy and Johnstown. All have 42 points, five off the pace of second-place Toledo and 13 away from league-leading Cincinnati. Both the latter clubs won last night along with Johnstown.

The Barons attempt to advance up the standings again this week when they meet Ft. Wayne's Komets in the Indiana city Saturday night and come back here for a meeting with Milwaukee Sunday afternoon.

Slow Opening

The first period was very quiet with each side scoring one goal. Troy opened up at 1:48 when Rod McElroy shot in the first of his four goals for the evening. He had help from Steve Gaber and Bob Manson. Marion tied it up at 7:57 with Hal Jones getting the score on assists from Ken Schultz and Tony Poeta.

An occurance at center ice at 1:08 of the second period really opened things up. Baron Ted Lebioda unintentionally hit Bruin George Burke in the right eye with his stick. The blow knocked Burke out and he was carried from the ice. It was learned that he had suffered a hemorrhage in the eye which might prove to have serious complications. Lebioda was given a five-minute penalty.

With the Barons one man short, Coach Norm McAtee of the Bruins put his "frantic five" treatment into effect. Translated this means that he had five forwards on the ice and all stops were pulled in an effort to break the game wide open. This is just what happened as three goals were counted by the Bruins before Lebioda returned to action. McElroy scored at 1:54, Gaber at 3:10, and McElroy again at 3:43.

Scoring Continues

However the Bruins kept the parade going even with the Barons at full strength with Bob Rawlyk scoring at 12:18, McAtee at 12:29 and Edwards at 19:50. For the Barons Hal Jones scored again at 18:17 to make it 7-2 at the end of the second frame.

The free-swinging game continued in the third period with Troy still in high gear and Marion also running fast. Gordon Vejprava, Ken Schultz, and Dutch DelMonte scored three in a row to make the score 7-5. However, McElroy came back to score his fourth goal for the Bruins at 12:33 and Jules Swick scored at 15:17 to make it 9-5. DelMonte, however, counted again at 16:32 to make it interesting. Bobby Rawlyk wound things up with his second marker of the evening to make the final score 10-6.

Baker Win Streak Ended by St. Mary

St. Mary broke Eber Baker's four-game winning streak last night with a 37-36 decision in a junior high game on the Edison floor.

Although the junior Irish led most of the way, Baker was never out of the running. The losers made an attempt to take command in the final minute when they whittled the St. Mary lead from 37-32 to the final count.

Butch Simpson with 17 and Jon Smith with 14 were the top scorers for St. Mary, while Richard Dixon's 14 and Jed Middleton's 10 were the losers' best efforts.

With Dave Williams' 10 paving the way, Baker's reserves walked off with a 26-8 victory in the jayvee contest.

ST. MARY 37

Smith 6-2-14, Simpson 5-7-17, Robbins 1-1-3, Ledford 0-2-2, Kelly 0-1-1, Sansotta 0-0-0.

BAKER 36

Saddler To End Layoff In Television Feature

NEW YORK (AP)—Sandy Saddler, home on leave from the Army, goes back to work after a 22-month ring layoff in a nontitle match with little Billy Bossio tonight at St. Nicholas Arena.

Although tonight's 10-rounder is regarded as more or less of a warmup for the featherweight champ, a 3½-1 favorite, he soon must get down to serious boxing. He is expected to be discharged from the Army by April at the latest.

The match, at 130 pounds, give or take a pound, will start at 10 p.m., EST, and will be carried on network TV (NBC) and radio (ABC).

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

St. Mary's scrappy cage crew fought for a long time but it has finally convinced Marion fans it is a good, little team.

Two 72-point performances last week did it. Most fans have conceded 72 points aren't to be sneezed at. Anyway not when the opposition scores 49 and 50.

While the Irish will go into Saturday's game at the Coliseum favored over Columbus Holy Family, no one is saying the same for next Tuesday's game which will see Delphos St. John moving in. The Delphos crew was handed its first loss last week by an upset-minded Ottoville crew 72-68. The losers had won 12 in a row.

Incidentally, if the game Saturday follows the same pattern as the last two with Holy Family some sort of a record should be shattered. Two years ago, Dick Gunder, now playing with Alabama's Crimson Tide, pumped in 44 points for a Coliseum and Marion prep school mark. Last year, Mike Anderson, who will be getting another crack at the team, dumped in 47 at Aquinas' gym in Columbus to establish another Marion scoring mark.

ASHLAND JINX. Ashland High School's athletic staff has been bucking trouble since the start of the 1953-54 school year.

Latest to be hit by injuries is popular George Valentine, athletic director. He suffered a fractured left arm while playing basketball with Myers Pumps earlier this week. George was injured when his arm was jammed against the floor during a fourth-quarter scramble for the ball with a cager from Cleveland. The Pumps will be without the services of their regular guard and sparkplug for the rest of the season.

Al Fendrick, another member of the Arrows' staff, was idled last fall when a broken knee put him on the sideline. That injury came while Al was officiating a high school football contest.

FOOTBALL KICKS OFF. Varsity football at Case Institute of Technology at Cleveland was given a mock burial by a group of students mourning the school's recent decision to drop intercollegiate gridiron activity. Case, which has 1,100 students, has had a team since 1891. Lack of student interest and high operating costs were cited as the reasons for dropping the sport. The "monument" on right retains a wisp of hope, however.

Fox Whips McGee In Bout at Armory

Billy Fox retained his belt last night when he whipped Irish McGee in two straight falls of the armory main event. The first fall ended when Lewis was disqualified and Fox won the second after 13 minutes with a series of dropkicks.

Violet Vian and Jim Lewis teamed up against Olga Zepeda and Mr. Satan in the mixed tag team event. The first fall was won by Zepeda when she pinned Vian after 15 minutes with an irish whip. Lewis evened the count after 13 minutes by pinning Satan with a jack knife hold. The deciding fall ended when Vian won with a body press from Zepeda.

Dick Torio and Ricky Waldo went to a draw in the 30-minute opener.

League Encounter

Prexies To Face Undefeated Fremont Team Here Tonight

Harding meets one of its most formidable foes of the season tonight on the local floor when undefeated Fremont Ross moves in for a Buckeye League encounter.

Sparked by Dean Doren, 6-4 senior pivotman, the Little Giants have rolled over seven opponents without a setback. The lanky pivotman is the team's leading scorer with an average of 21 points a game. During recent games, with the opposition's defense centered on him, the Ross attack has been bolstered by Jack Baron, a 5-7 guard, who shattered Findlay in a recent game.

In addition to Doren and Baron, the staring Ross team will probably have Larry Miller, a 6-3 junior, and Henry Tille, a 6-0 junior, at the forwards, and Charles Black, 5-11 senior, or Ted Houghtaling, a 5-10 senior, at the other guard. Also due for a lot of action will be Dick Harter, 6-3 senior, who relieves one of the forwards.

Despite the Giants' success thus far, Fremont observers report they have failed to impress their home town fans as an impressive cage squad. Every player on the squad, however, has displayed accuracy from the floor and the squad has turned in a respectable shooting performance in all seven engagements. An experienced team, the group includes seven of the first eight varsity players from last year's Ross quintet. Only player missing is Dick Garcia who now performs as a freshman star at the College of Wooster.

Fremont has notched wins over Willard 93-52, a team which the Prexies battered 96-35 early in the season; Findlay 63-55, a team which defeated Harding 55-46; and Fostoria 49-46, a team which downed the Presidents 79-43 last week. The Fremont win over Fostoria came after an overtime battle. Other Ross victories have been posted over Norwalk 77-64, Elyria 67-56, Tiffin Columbian 52-49, and Toledo Devilbis 62-59.

Coach Jim Lawler is still undecided on his starting lineup and will probably go with his usual top seven. That will include Ron Conroy, top scorer for the Prexies with 128 markers, Bob Hamor, second high point maker, Donnie Smith and Doug Bibler, who sparked the offense in the 67-59 win over Shelby Tuesday night, Dave Schnelker, Max Kaelber and Joe Snouffer.

Harding will be seeking its first win in Buckeye League competition after losses to Bowling Green, Findlay and Fostoria. The win over Shelby evened the Prexies' record at 5-5. The five losses were suffered during a slump which hit the Harding camp after four straight wins at the opening of the campaign.

Mather Awaits Final Decision On Kansas Post

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Chuck Mather, Washington High School's very successful football coach, may be offered a job today at Kansas University.

In Kansas City last night, a source close to the school said Mather would be named head coach.

Mather, whose team won the Ohio scholastic championship the last six years, returned yesterday from an interview with school officials.

"I found (them) . . . really interested in the football picture," he said, "and the coaching job at Kansas looks as if it would be one of good possibilities."

The school is to announce its selection today.

Another coach who became famous at Washington High was Paul Brown, who left here for Ohio State and later took over the Cleveland pro team.

Claridon Quintet Wins Junior High Cage Game

Claridon edged New Bloomington 28-23 in a Marion County Junior High School League game on the winners' floor Thursdy.

The winners outscored the visitors 11-5 during the first quarter and it proved to be a margin of victory. New Bloomington sliced the Claridon lead to 18-13 at halftime but both clubs matched each other in scoring in both of the next two periods.

Stan Beers came in with 10 points for the winning Claridon squad while John McClenathan added eight. Schuber totaled 11 for the losers.

Green Camp School Slates Annual Homecoming Event

Miss Betty Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dow Bates of near Marion, will reign as queen tonight at Green Camp High School's annual basketball homecoming.

BETTY BATES

The observance will be held during a Marion County League session between Green Camp and New Bloomington. Three games will be played. In addition to the varsity and reserve battles, junior high school teams from each village will play.

The observance will be opened with a soup supper at 5 p.m. and following the basketball action a dance will be held in the old gymnasium.

Miss Bates is a member of the senior class at Green Camp. Her senior attendant will be Kitty Kempton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kempton. Representing the junior class on the court will be Joyce Willey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Willey, and Judy Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marsh will be sophomore attendant. Saundra Converse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Converse, will be freshman attendant.

Serving as escorts for the queen will be Alvin Stover and George Rush, members of the team, Jack Green will escort Miss Kempton and Bob Bish will escort Miss Willey. Escorting Miss Marsh and Miss Converse will be Lewis Finch and Harold Wassc eck respectively.

The crowning ceremony will take place between the reserve and varsity games. The Green Camp band will play during the festivities.

Bowling

Helen Culp fired a 211-603 to pace bowlers in the Thursday Afternoon Ladies League at Palace Recreation. Other games in her high series were a 199 and a 193. A total of 12 games of 180 or more were rolled with Caroline Ulsh hitting 174-193-173 for a 540. Judy Phelps hit 557, while Delores Montgomery hit 181, Sue Disbennett 181, Opal Stroupe 184, Jane Richards 182, Josephine Huffman 189 and Florence Wilcox 192. Palace Recreation's 853-2368 took team honors.

Fraternal League bowlers at Marion Recreation were led by Robert Stout's 215 and Ben Caldwell's 572. Moose No. 2 with 964-2521 led the teams there.

E. Best totaled 246-663 to show the way in the Classic League where six 600 series were posted as well as 29 games of 200 or better. T. Blair hit 617, R. Obenour 617, M. Roseberry 604, M. Snyder 610 and C. Samples 613. Nevada Furniture fired a sparkling 1042-2989 for team honors.

Richard Putney hit 225-599 while Delores Haines carded 169 and Jean Kneisley hit 452 for honors in the Marion Engineer Depot League. Other high games were John Ullom's 208, Dale Morehart's 203 and Richard Burdge's 203. Jolly Five hit 777 and Crazy Five rolled 2209 for team honors.

C. Leffler's 199 and John Thrap's 550 were best in the Industrial League. General Contractors with 845 and Walt Mayes Decorators

Meet Holy Family

Irish Seek Fifth Straight In Game Here Tomorrow

St. Mary opens a seven-game home stand tomorrow night in an attempt to post its fifth straight victory with a triumph over Columbus Holy Family. A win will give the Irish an 8-4 record.

Ray Robbins will probably go along with the lineup that has been seeing most of the action in recent games: Mike Anderson, 5-11, and Roger Michele, 5-10, at the pivot positions, with Butch Merchant, 5-7, Jerry Ballenger, 5-8, and John Messenger, 5-7, operating on the outside.

Anderson currently tops the Irish scoring column. With 175 points in 11 games he has an average of 16 per game. Right behind him comes Merchant whose 28 points against Cardington boosted his total to 114 and his average per game to a little more than 10 points. Micheli ranks third with a 107 total and an average of a little less than 10.

The Irish started the season slowly with their main troubles being a low shooting percentage and an inability to control the boards.

But in their last three games they've had little trouble hitting the mark. The connected on 42 per cent of their attempted field goals against Kenton, another 42 per cent against Richwood and 46 per cent against Cardington.

Despite a height advantage in every one of their last three games, the Irish have been able to grab more than their share of the rebounds.

The Irish reserves will be after their seventh win in 10 starts when they face the visiting jayvees in tomorrow night's preliminary at 7 p.m.

Western Pros Picked To Win By Touchdown

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Western Conference All-Stars may be at least a one-touchdown favorite for Sunday's fourth annual Pro Bowl in Memorial Coliseum but Earle (Curly) Lambeau, coach of the Washington Redskins, is picking the Eastern Conference squad.

Lambeau, who has just completed 35 years in the pro game, says the East squad is "simply terrific and I don't see how anybody could round up a better set of defensive men; I know because my Redskins had to face most of these fellows at least twice during the season."

The West has been established as the favorite chiefly because of its ball carriers and a passing attack that may just about match that generated by Otto Graham of Cleveland and Bobby Thomason of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Detroit's Bobby Layne has two brilliant alternates for the quarterback position, Norman Van Brocklin and Y. A. Tittle, and a set of runners that includes Doak Walker, Tank Younger, Dan Towler, Joe Perry, Hugh McElhenny and other backs.

Graham, the Cleveland star, and Thomason, of the Philadelphia Eagles, are not exactly outmanned, however, with such ball carriers as Harry Jagade, Johnny Olszewski, Ray Renfro and others.

Paul Brown, coach of the Eastern team, may have an edge in the backfield talent in that he has three-fourths of his usual array from the Cleveland Browns—Graham, Renfro and Jagade.

Neither coach has many secrets from the other. Obviously the outcome of the game depends to a large extent on how well the coaches have been able to co-ordinate the talents at hand, both on offense and defense.

The game will be nationally televised over the Dumont network, starting at 4 p. m. EST.

Meeker Riflemen Bow To Bowling Green Club

The Meeker Rifle Club fell before Bowling Green's marksmen by three points Tuesday night in a match held at the Meeker club's range. Bowling Green managed a 1,416-1,413 edge over the Marion County shooters.

Scores of the Meeker shooters were as follows: Don Hinton, 288; George Tron, 285; Francis Montgomery, 281; Allen Dreyer, 280; and Byron Rowlinson, 279.

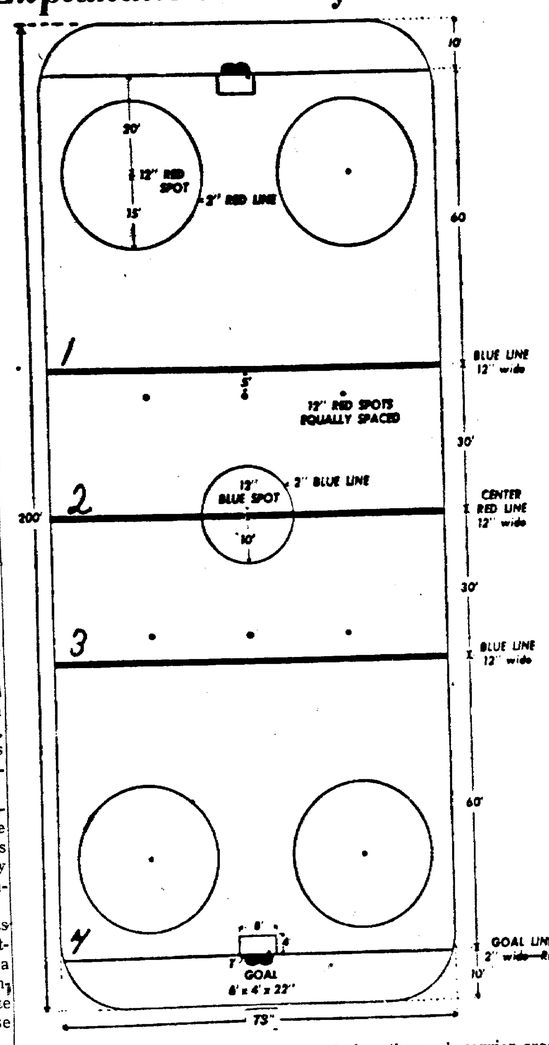
Official of Hockey Club Gives Explanation of Major Rules



In an effort to acquaint fans with the major rules of hockey, Pete Hendy, public relations director for the Marion Barons, has written a series of brief items for The Star. The first in the series is published here today.

It is easy to understand hockey once fans learn the meaning of "offside" and "icing the puck".

In the accompanying diagram, the ice is divided into thirds by the blue lines into a defensive zone (1), neutral zone (2 and 3), and offensive zone (4).

A player is offside if he is over the line in the offensive zone (4) and receives a pass from a team mate who is in the neutral zone (3 and 2) or defensive zone (1).

If a player on the offensive team skates over into the offensive zone (4) before the puck carrier crosses it, the play is offside.

If a player in his own defending zone (1) passes ahead over the center red line into zone (3) and the puck is picked up by a team mate who was not "onside" at the time the pass is made, the play is offside. In all cases where an offside occurs the linesman blows his whistle and the play is called back and the puck faced-off.

The ice is divided by a red line. If the teams are at equal strength and a player shoots from his side of the center red line and it passes over the opponents' red goal line which stretches across the ice 10 feet out from the end of the boards and the puck is touched by an opponent, the play is called back for "icing the puck". A team below the numerical strength of its opponent may "ice" the puck at any time from any place.

Marion Teams Prep for Elks Bowling Event

Six Marion teams are preparing to bowl in the Tenth annual North Central District Ohio Elks Handicap Bowling Tournament Jan. 23 and 24 at Avon Lake Recreation in Lorain.

The torney got under way last weekend as 26 five-man teams from Lorain and Delaware rolled on the alleys. Bowlers from Galion, Bellevue, Bucyrus, Lorain, Wooster and Elyria are scheduled to bowl this weekend in tourney play.

Loyal Knights of Delaware took over first place in the team event in last week's action with 2999. W. Goohs and F. Ursic of Lorain lead the two-man event with 1304 while A. Powers of Delaware tops the singles with 678.

Lorain Lodge 1301 is host for the tournament which is being run on consecutive weekends through Jan. 31. Five-man teams bowl on Saturday nights with the doubles and singles being held Sunday afternoon and evening. A total of 115 five-man teams have entered. Roy Newell of Marion has been nominated for fourth vice president of the North Central District Ohio Elks Bowling Association for 1955 and Delaware, Wooster and Galion are bidding for the 1955 tournament.

In the 1953 tournament held here last year, Glackin Chevrolet on Mt. Vernon won the five-man team event with 3038 while W. Armstrong and G. Dickson of Mt. Vernon teamed together to win the doubles with 1333. N. Male of Mansfield won the singles with his 719 and M. Yuhas of Lorain was the all-events champion with 1818 actual pin fall, the only event based on actual pins. Other events are run on a handicap bais.

Drumm Nash Sales of Marion hit 2996 for a fourth place tie in last year's tourney. City Furniture Mart hit 2982 for sixth spot and Buettino Sales had 2973 for eighth slot. W. Barber of Marion rolled 672 for eighth position in the singles.

Nebraska Grid Team Calls For Resignation of Coach

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Thirty-five University of Nebraska football players, a major segment of the material for next fall's Cornhusker football team, have called for the resignation of Bill Glassford as Nebraska's head coach.

Their names were signed to a statement give newsmen last night. The players said they feared ridicule, embarrassment or threats of losing their scholarships from Glassfod.

The statement was the latest development in the muddled Nebraska coaching situation.

Glassford, with seven years more in his job apparently guaranteed him by contract, has said he is still coach. He has talked with university officials about termination of his contract without an agreement being reached.

In the statement they signed, the players said:

"No one on the squad ever knew exactly where he stood with the coach and never felt free to talk to him as an individual. We would like the public to know the element of our fear:

"That fear being that if a player does or says the wrong thing, he will be ridiculed, embarrased and be faced with the threat of losing his scholarship or never having the opportunity to play again."

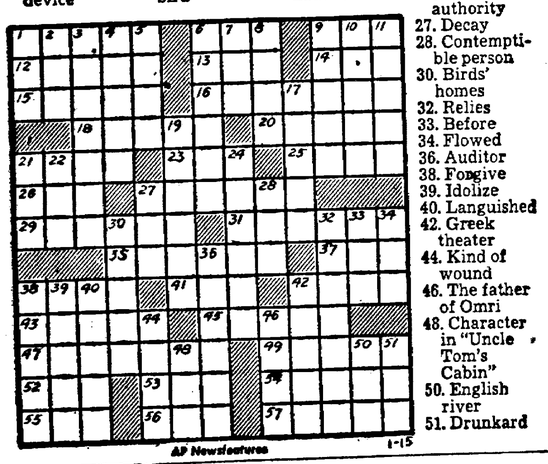
Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle



STORK EXPRESS

WALLINGFORD, Conn. (UP) — When Everett Beeman received an emergency call that the stork was on the way, he was in Hartford, 30 miles from home, and without an automobile. Ingenuity solved his problem. On a large piece of cardboard he drew a picture of a stork and under it he printed the name of his town. Then he stood at the side of the highway, hoping to hitchhike a ride. An understanding father picked him up and took him to the hospital, where he arrived seven hours ahead of the stork.

LONG WAY AROUND

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP) — The mail does go through. A letter from Germany addressed to "Gimmi W. Griffis, 1148, Chelseow, Memphis, Egypte," finally got to Jimmie W. Griffin at 1148 Chelsea here after going first to Egypt.

HOW MANY DIFFERENT JOBS ARE REQUIRED TO EXTRACT OIL FROM THE GROUND AND GET IT TO THE CONSUMER ? ABOUT 1,800.

THE HEART OF JULIET JONES By Stan Drake

ANY TIME YOU GET TOO BORED WITH PLAYING MAMA TO MY DOMESTIC PROBLEMS, TELL ME, HUH? GOSH, I ACT LIKE YOU WERE TO BLAME FOR MY FALLING IN LOVE WITH AN IRRESPONSIBLE LITTLE NUMBER WHO TOOK A TEMPORARY SHINE TO THE LOCAL YOKEL!
LONG DISTANCE, PLEASE!
JULIE! WHAT DO YOU THINK YOU'RE DOING?
IT'S LONG DISTANCE, MISS TALBOT— FROM DEVON—
GIVE ME THAT PHONE AND DISAPPEAR— PLEASE!

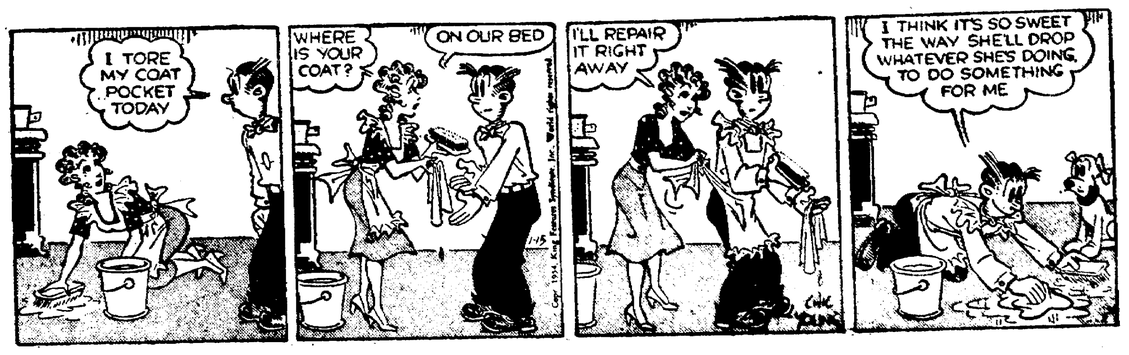
BLONDIE By Chic Young



I TORE MY COAT POCKET TODAY
WHERE IS YOUR COAT?
ON OUR BED
I'LL REPAIR IT RIGHT AWAY
I THINK IT'S SO SWEET THE WAY SHE'LL DROP WHATEVER SHE'S DOING, TO DO SOMETHING FOR ME

DICK TRACY By Chester Gould

TELL UNCLE KINCAID HE'S COMPLETELY CLEARED AND HE'S FREE. PONY'S CONFESSION IS COMPLETE.
WE HAVE SUFFICIENT LEGAL EVIDENCE TO SEND HER AND 3-D MAGEE TO THE CHAIR. THE CASE IS AIR-TIGHT!
PONY'S CONFESSION HAS CORRECTIONS ON EACH PAGE IN HER OWN HANDWRITING. IT CAN'T BE REFUTED.
CHESTER GOULD
CHICK—YOU PLAYED A BIG PART IN THIS CASE. DID YOU EVER CONSIDER BECOMING A LADY DETECTIVE?
ARE YOU KIDDING ME?

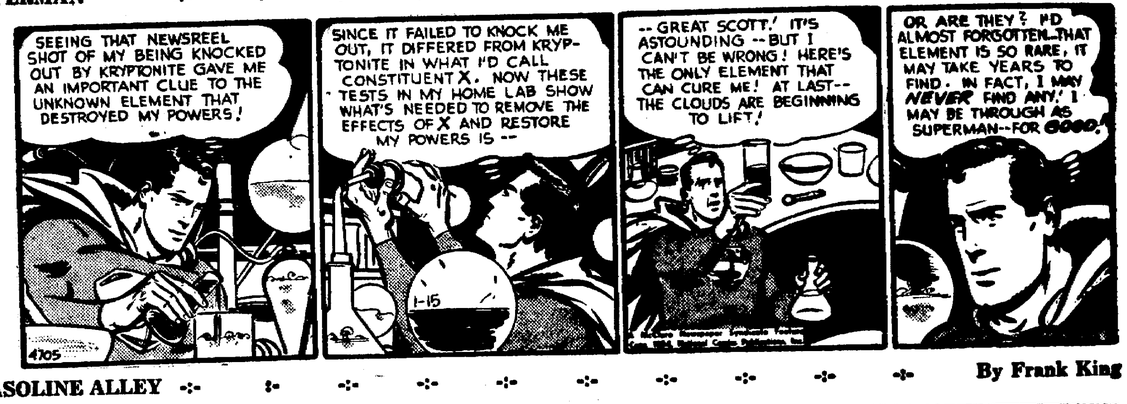
RIP KIRBY By Alex Raymond

OPERATOR, GET ME MR. CLARENCE TWICKAM AT THE SHERRYLAND HOTEL IN NEW YORK CITY...
OH, GOSH, DESMOND, ANOTHER JENNY ROBBINS ON THE PHONE?
YES, CRUSHER, BUT THIS ONE SAYS SHE WAS IN MISS APPLEGATE'S SIXTH GRADE WITH YOU!
SHE'S THE ONLY ONE WOULD KNOW THAT HERE, DESMOND, THAT'S HER! THAT'S MY JENNY!

SUPERMAN By Wayne Boring



SEEING THAT NEWSREEL SHOT OF MY BEING KNOCKED OUT BY KRYPTONITE GAVE ME AN IMPORTANT CLUE TO THE UNKNOWN ELEMENT THAT DESTROYED MY POWERS!
SINCE IT FAILED TO KNOCK ME OUT, IT DIFFERED FROM KRYPTONITE IN WHAT I'D CALL CONSTITUENT X. NOW THESE TESTS IN MY HOME LAB SHOW WHAT'S NEEDED TO REMOVE THE EFFECTS OF X AND RESTORE MY POWERS IS -- --GREAT SCOTT! IT'S ASTOUNDING --BUT I CAN'T BE WRONG! HERE'S THE ONLY ELEMENT THAT CAN CURE ME! AT LAST-- THE CLOUDS ARE BEGINNING TO LIFT!
OR ARE THEY? I'D ALMOST FORGOTTEN—THAT ELEMENT IS SO RARE, IT MAY TAKE YEARS TO FIND. IN FACT, I MAY NEVER FIND ANY. I MAY BE THROUGH AS SUPERMAN--FOR GOOD!

GASOLINE ALLEY By Frank King

Corky, wake up! Nubbin is crying!
I've got a trout on the line an' can't come.
Calm down, Buster. A change will do you good.
Why does it have to be me?
You agreed on 50-50, remember?
My hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. This is your shift.

JOE PALOOKA By Ham Fisher

THE FIGHT IS ONLY ONE DAY OFF. BOTH MEN ARE IN PERFECT SHAPE SINCE THE EXTRA WEEK OF TRAINING.
THAT WRAPS IT UP? I WAS AFRAID A EXTRA WEEK WOULD DRAW YA OUT TOO FINE...YA MIGHT GIT OVERSTRANG.
I FEEL WONDERFUL. WHAT DID TED GREEN THINK OF DIGGER?
HE THINKS DIGGER HAS A SLIGHT EDGE...THAT HE MIGHT TAKE TH' DUKE... PARKER, BRUMBY, FRANK BUCK AN' CORUM GIVE YA A BIG EDGE.
GOOD. NOW I WANT TO GET OVER HOME. I'LL BE BACK IN A FEW HOURS.

TERRY AND THE PIRATES By George Wunder

OINK! OINK!
A FINE PIG FOR YOUR OWN MESS TONIGHT, COMRADE POLICEMAN. SEE?
CAREFUL, WOMAN! IF OUR DINNER MEETS ITS FATE IN A TEMPER, THE FLAVOR MAY BE IMPAIRED!
